Chapter 1

I don't have any friends

I don't have anyone who I enjoy playing after school, or have any sort of gathering with an acquaintance.

The reason is...

It's not like I hate being social

I m not being bullied or whatsoever

Obviously, I don't have a disease where I say "I hate a human being."

Then why would I not have any friends?

Since young I was told that I have this unique maybe special characteristic/feature, and this feature prevented me from making friends.

And that is— — —

— — — My eyes looks so fierce it scares people away.

Chapter 2

Chapter 2 Family and Daily Life

It was on a peaceful day, I was feeling really comfortable and felt really peaceful in my room, I felt something or someone broke through my doors really fiercely.

That person came near me and took my friend(blanket) then shouted really loudly.

“Wake up it’s late!!” Sounded as if my mom who always shouts at me.

No, she’s my mom. Yup, my mom.

She’s not my osananajimi (Childhood friend) from next door, nor she is a beautiful younger sister. Mom.

Well, I never really had any sister or a childhood friend.

While I was thinking about these stupid things, My mom gave me hard knuckle on my head.

“You were just thinking about stupid thing weren’t you? Quickly wake up.” She said. I reluctantly said farewell to my friend (blanket)

My dad was there when I went downstairs to the living room. Drinking coffee and reading newspaper as always.

I greeted my dad, and usual greeting came at me.

Nn, just like any other day. Everything is the same.

Today will be like any other day, I go school and enjoy my loner life.

But, Life seems to hate the no changing life of mine, maybe today something new might happen.

Chapter 3

“As always your Eyes looks really dangerous. You aren’t thinking of doing bad things right?” my mom saying such a rude things to me and, “He probably is too young to become a criminal” I eat breakfast hearing my dad say this.

What I’m too young. I don’t plan on becoming a criminal
As I complain in my mind, I ate my breakfast, so I quickly made my preparation and left home.

Students who came earlier than me look at my side as I opened the door of the classroom.

Most of them looked as if they saw a living demon and shivered.

— Shouldn’t you guys, at least, get used to it gosh, I think like that but I guess it’s better than before. Since the people who sees my face for the first time freezes right off the bat and won’t move for a while. I guess they got a little used to it since none of them gets frozen for like awhile like before.

Even though I look kind of calm but truthfully being feared at is really sad. I saw a shadow of a person coming close to me as I was sighing at my destiny.

“Go, Good morning Kurosaki-Kun!” Trying hard to greet me.

— If you are that scared just don’t come.

I greeted back randomly. I’m not an asshole who don’t reply. This part is Important. Super important.

Is this her curiosity to look at some scary thing. I don’t understand this person every time.

This young girl—Shinomiya Yui is a beauty.
Fine face with a perfect body with perfect shape. Her long dark black hair which reflects a light, showing her beauty even through hair.
Chaste, Pure, Beauty... This kind of words come to you when you look at her body, her looks shows her noble and richness.

And her character of being kind to everyone and anyone equality brought her fame throughout Boys and girls in the class.

Even though she has these characteristics, whenever she comes near me she becomes really stiff and unnatural. Am I that scary? Then why do you think she even talks to me, most likely it's her kind nature which forces her to do so.

She even shows kindness to me even though I have really scary looking eyes. Her greeting every morning shows that.

I as a kind person myself won't give her any trouble. So usually I would just answer back randomly and get going toward my seat. Every time I do that she tries to talk to me but she normally can't as fear overcomes her kindness. If I stay in front of her for any longer it feels like I'm actually bullying her or people might think I'm bullying her. That's why I always go toward my seat as quick as possible.

But today it didn't go like every day

"Oi, Kurosaki! Shinomiya-san is kind enough to greet you so why don't you greet her back properly!!"

Someone is coming toward me saying so.

Feeling annoyed inside and I turned to look at him while sighing. When our eyes met he shivered and took a step back, He somehow gets the courage to say something stupid.

"I don't really know why Shinomiya-san is greeting you but! Yo, You should at least reply properly!"

Shinomiya-san in panic tries to calm that guy who said this.

"Sa, Sakuma-kun. I did it on my own accord plus Kurosaki-kun replied so please don't get that angry."

"Bu, But..."

This guy who just can't give up is called Sakuma Keiichi.

His looks are average. His sports sense is average, and his study is lower than average. He is a kind of thug who always has an argument with the teacher.

And this guy seemed to have a crush on Shinomiya.

That's why he can't accept it. That Shinomiya is trying to befriend me. To talk with me.

To me, its all just simply annoying, but if I said so Shinomiya will get hurt. That's why I should just finish this quickly so no problem will occur. Thinking like that I tell Shinomiya "Sorry about that, I didn't have enough sleep and was having trouble replying. Please forgive me." I bowed my head down.

Seeing this Shinomiya and Sakuma go surprised but Shinomiya quickly realized and, said hurriedly "Ku, Kurosaki-kun! I'm not angry at all. Please raise your heads up!"

When I heard her said this, I raised my heads up and said "I'm really sorry. I will be careful from now on" and soon after I went toward my seat.

Chapter 4

While I was resting on my desk, More and more people came in and the place became noisy. But even with this many people, place around me is still empty with no one coming by, just like every other day.

Even Sakuma and Shinomiya went to their respective group of friends.

It was time for homeroom but no homeroom teacher ever came. So with no homeroom teacher one of the students went to call for an adult, the door seems to not open.

There was this guy who shouted “Calm down everyone!!”, he sounded like some sort of hero. His name is Shirogane Hayato. He is handsome, good at both study and sports plus has a righteous characteristic, A real hero who everyone likes.

Even so I don’t really like him, he’s a natural narcissist and he makes a stupid assumption most of the time. For now, everyone was able to calm down thanks to the dramatic way he said to everyone.

Suddenly, a light started shining, and the shining got stronger and stronger. Everything around me became white.

When I opened my eyes I was in space as white as the light before.

Everyone couldn’t keep up with this sudden event and were speechless for a moment.

In the middle of this place a man appeared

“Yo, welcome younglings. It’s me who called you all here.”

Everyone started panicking but suddenly a man shouted.

“Wait a moment! Who might you be!!” A real hero Shirogane said.

“I am God.”

He said as is it was normal. Everyone became quiet again.

“What the fuck are you saying. Just bring us back!” The thug (lol) Sakuma shouted but the man ignored him.

“I’m going to send you guys to a dungeon. And I want you people to conquer it”

Even though I couldn’t make up what he was saying, some humans could.

“So, So we can get cheat in another world transportation!?”

Murata Taichi who is an Otaku said. Usually, he would be reading a short novel called a light novel in class and sometimes he grins stupidly, But right now his fat filled face showed a smile.

But

“It’s true I’m going to give you guys a power but it depends on your luck if it is strong. Also, even if the power is strong or weak you guys’s life is on the line, I’m sure it’s not something you all will enjoy.” Said a self-proclaimed God

When the people heard their life is on the line they started panicking and shouting, but the self-proclaimed god seemed to not care.

“I will now send you guys. If you arrive in there you might as well as open your status it will help you guys. There is an even tutorial, without further ado bye, beee.”

Next moment, light surrounded us and our sight was blocked.

Chapter 5

What I saw after the light dimmed was a floor made out of rock.

There was no one around. I guess everyone was transported to different places.

First, I need to arrange my thoughts. I know this thing:

We were forced metastasized to dungeon by Self-proclaimed God

We has to conquer the dungeon

Everyone was given a power by self-proclaimed God

We have to check our status

So without further ado lets check my status.

Feeling a little embarrassed, I enchanted the word Status, The transparent board like thingy popped up in front of me.

The thing written in here is as follows.

Name: Kurosaki Naoto Lv 1

Sex: Male

Skill:

Gifted Skill:

True Seeing Eyes

Usurper

Special Skill:

Coercivity aura

Fighting Skill:

Body Maneuver

Martial Arts

Title:

Fearful Piercing Eyes

Other Worlder

What's this?

It feels like a game.....

While I was thinking that

Suddenly light started gathering, it started to take a shape of a human

When the light dispersed, there was a little loli the size of a primary school.

Little loli showing her back to me.

“Fu fu fu, you must have called me. Come on otherworlder! I am going to show you an excellent tutorial ohhhhhhhhhhhhh!!!!”

While turning around sounding really creepy, When I thought She saw my face she screamed.

“Gyaaaaaaaa There is an ogre hereeeeeee!!!!!!”

I didn't really understand but what I know is that she is making fun of me.

——Why Orge. Am I a fucking mass murder? DO I really have that imposing aura? While I was thinking these stupid things, the little loli, this time, she tried to run away while shivering.

“I'm sorry, I'm sorry. I'm sorry for suddenly appearing. I am going to apologize so please don't eat me. I don't taste good you know....”while crying real hard she said really rude things.

——So troublesome right off the bat

While signing I go nearer to her.

“Oi, I am a human being. I don't know what's an ogre or something, first, try calming down.”

“Eh? Human? Eh??”

The little loli is panicking.

—— Maybe I should hit her

Maybe she heard what I was thinking, she screamed more and retreated further.

While sighing stronger, I raised my hand, sign for a loss.

“Just calm down. I am really a human. I am the other worlder you just said.”

Finally she started to understand the situation she stood up and look at me as if I was a ghost.

“Rea, really? Really a otherworlder-sama?”

“Aah, it’s true. When I opened my status you suddenly appeared”

Now that she understood her position, she probably remembered her act of crying and shaking, this time looking apologetically looked at me.

“So, sorry. That, etto, that was the thing.....”

“It’s fine. I’m already used to it”

“But....”

“Well I was kinda bit pissed off”

“Hi!...”

She looks like crying again.

While feeling at lost I extended my hand toward the little loli.

Maybe the little loli thought Im gonna hit her so she screamed and shut her eyes

====I can’t hit a girl this young.

While thinking so I padded her head lightly.

“Right now I’m really not angry. So just feel safe”

Looking surprised at sudden action she didn’t me to do.

“Re, really you’re not angry?” Looking suspiciously at my side

“Of course. Why should I be angry at such thing”

“Really.... Thats good...” For the first time, the little loli smiled.

“Than the misunderstanding is gone, so can I ask you who are you? And I am Kurosaki Naoto ”

“Ah, yes. I am a fairy created for this tutorial. Please to meet you, korosaki-san”

“Aa, nice to meet you. So, what should I do in this tutorial”

“Tutorial is to prepare a necessary knowledge for a person to conquer this dungeon”

“Hmm I see. Than I would like to start my tutorial but....eeto...”

“? what’s wrong”

“Nothing, I just didn’t know what to call you? Name?”

“I have no name. I was just created now”

“So you have no name.....You were created meaning I can assume you were created by that self-proclaimed god?”

“Self, self-proclaimed god. I didn’t think you would call him so, but yes he was the one who created me.”

“fuun...I guess that would do, but having no name is really the pain. Don’t you have any?”

“I don’t have any so why not kurosaki-san give me the name?”

“Me? I can just do that?”

“There won’t be any problem. If it’s okay with Kurosaki-san please think through”

It seems I must give name to a fairy

——I never thought of a name for anyone

I couldn’t come up with any good one so I took the name of the fairy queen “Tia”, and gave it to her.

“Tia..is it. My name is.... Tia...”

She is mumbling her name over and over again

“A– didn’t you like it? Should I change it?”

“No, no! Tia is good! Tia is good!!”

She shouted with a lot of energy so I was surprised but it seem she took a liking to the name.

“Than Tia. Can you start the Tutorial?”

“Yes, leave it to me!!”

“First please open the status again”

“Roger”

Name: Kurosaki Naoto Lv 1

Sex: Male

Fighting Technique

Title:

Fearful Piercing Eyes

Other Worlder

“Is this fine?”

“Yes, thank you very much. I would be looking at it so, please. Let’s see let’s see...here...ooo....this, this one...”

“Thank you very much. Then let me start the explanation”

“Ou. Please do so”

“Yes, Than lets start seeing from the upper part”

“You know your name and sex right?”

“Aah, Of course”

“The Lv next to the name is level. If it reaches the maximum capacity of experience in the level you level up, you can get EXP after killing the enemy.”

“There seem to be no Hp or parameter, what happens when I level up?”

“When you level up your body gets stronger, and your Mana capacity gets bigger ”

“I understand my body becoming stronger but what is mana?”

“I will be explaining this later but in this world there is such a thing called magic;. This magic requires mana to be depleted”

“I see, I understand let’s move on”

“Hai next is this thing called Gifted Skill. This is a power given to you by the god. It is randomly given to everyone. And Gifted skill does not have a level even though all other skills have.”

“My Gifted skill are True Seeing Eyes and Usurper.... What does this power do?”

“I’m sorry. The abilities descriptions are not given to us. But you can look at it yourself in the status”

“Is that so. Than let me take a look”

I pressed the button which says description.
The skill’s description came up
The description was this:

True Seeing Eyes
Highest level appraisal skill
You can see the status of everything
And you can see if the opponent is lying Impossible to hide.

Usurper
You can take the opponent’s skill after defeating it.
If you already have the skill, you get experience point and merge with it.

Coercivity aura
You can scare the enemy.
The effect will differ as the difference in the level, or the level of the skill.

Body Maneuver
You can move your body easier

It supports the martial arts.

Fighting Technique

You can fight without a weapon.

Supports your body power.

Fearful Piercing Eyes

Supports Coerciative aura

And, you become stronger against mental attacks

Otherworlder

You can take tutorial

—————It seems I got a cheat

Chapter 6

When I explained my skill effects Tia was flabbergasted with her eyes wide open.

“Even compared to other skill, you really got some cheat level skill” that’s what she said. I feel it too.

From Tia’s explanation there seem to be 2 ways we can do to acquire the skill. The first way is to train you way in. For example for martial arts, you can kill the monster using your hands and you can acquire it.

The second way is to use an item called Skill Orb. You can find in treasure chest around the dungeon. You can get the skill stored in the orb.

If you already owned that skill, it will level up by 1. So with such an amazing ability, it is really hard to find.

My power can ignore these orbs and can gain skill.
The cheat that otaku said probably would be this. I thought of these things.

“Can I continue with my explanation?”

“Aah, sorry. Please do so”

“Hai, then let me explain to you about the common skill”

“There is three type of normal skill. First Special Skill. This one is like the skill you own Coercivity aura and appraisal skills”

“Next is Fighting skill. Such as Archery, Spear, sword etc.. anything with physical attacking skill.”

“Third is a Magic skill. Kurosaki-san you still don’t have this yet. Magic skill contains anything to do with magic, magic control, and elemental magic.”

“I see. So how do normal people gain magic skills”

“Usually, People are born with elemental magic. Some also can gain by using magic orb”

“So without being born with elemental magic, you most likely won’t be able to use magic”

“Yes, it is so. But people with magic skill usually have harder time learning fighting skill, to keep a balance with each other”

“So what’s a title?”

“Title is something you gain after achieving the specific requirement. The title is really hard to get but it has an effect of increasing your growth rate, enhancing your power, so having it is really useful.”

“I understand. Is that all for status?”

“It is finished. Do you have any question regarding status?”

“Can other notice me if I used the appraisal skill like True seeing eyes?”

“I that person had a high detection skill than he might notice, but mostly no one will notice it since True Seeing Eyes is the highest quality appraisal skill.”

“That’s great. Then the explanation for status is done so what are we doing next?”

“Next, I’m going to explain about dungeon”

“Kurosaki-san do you know what is a dungeon?”

“I know I heard it in the RPG in the earth. If you say what it is I don’t know”

“Dungeon is a world created from the gathering of negative emotion.”

“The World? This place?”

I look around feeling at a loss.

“Hai, the negative feeling which born from many another world, God can’t extinguish all of these feelings by himself. And that leftover negative feeling will be stored in another dimension.”

“Are you telling me all the left over made this place?”

“Yes, you are right. With the gathering of negative feeling, many species, and monsters, plus traps are born. And the dungeon itself transport people from the different world and eat their soul.”

“With the gathering of the negative feeling, it changes into hatred of the world? That self-proclaimed... no, he is actually real... Whatever. So that self-proclaimed god wants us to do his stupid work.”

“If you say it like that than it is but.....”

“That self-proclaimed god is a fucking degenerate. When I meet him next time I will show him how hard my punch is”

I smiled after saying so

Tia looks like she is about to cry again.

“Goho goho, so what should I do to conquer this dungeon?”

“Ah, yes. There is a boss in every floor inside the dungeon. If you defeat the boss of the floor you can move onto next floor. If you defeat all the boss, it means you conquered the dungeon”

“Wait a moment! Next floor? You mean there is several another floor in this dungeon!?”

“Hai, that is true. In every dungeon, there is 10 floor”

“For real... How big is the floor?”

“More you go higher floor it gets smaller, so the first floor is really wide. It is almost impossible for you to go every room”

“That big... Will we get a map?”

“Of course, you get one! Just say the map and you can see the road you took.”

“Than there is no need to be afraid of being lost. Isn't there map also right?”

“Yes but you don't have to worry about trap in 1st floor, but if you go higher floor there will be some dangerous traps so be careful”

“Roger”

“If you don't have any more question for the dungeon explanation I will finish the talk.”

“Is there a place where we can take a break”

“Ah, I'm sorry! I forgot to explain you about that. Inside the dungeon, there is some place where monsters can't enter. So you can rest in there. At least safe from monster....”

“So that means we can’t be protected from humans... Oh well All I gotta do is prepare for myself for any incident which might occur”

“Plus when you are inside the restroom. Special magic will clean your body, so if you enter frequently you can stop worrying about being dirty”

“Hou, that will help”

“Is that all for a question”

“Yup, please proceed with the explanation”

“Lastly, I will explain about the monsters. I already talked about dungeon having monster, there is several different types of monsters are present”

“There may be a humanoid type such as goblin and ogre, Insect-type monster and even undead type monster are present. Different monsters have a different weak point so its good to know your opponent.”

“But for you Kurosaki-san, you don’t have to worry about it since you have a high-class appraisal skill, True seeing eyes.”

While saying so Tia smiled

“If I defeat the monster will I get anything other than experience point?”

“Yes, If you defeat a monster they will drop magic core.”

“If you insert the magic core inside the status board, you can exchange it for a point”

“Point? What’s that”

“Point is used to purchase foods, clothes, weapons and armours, and etc. you just have to say Shop than the screen will change.”

“I see there was something really useful such as this.”

I was worrying about foods and stuff but with this, it will help me alot.

“How do I carry around the items? I don’t even have a bag”

“When you enchant Box, you can put your items inside the another dimension. For every level, you can insert more items”

“Hoa, there seem to be many handy functions”

“After this the tutorial will finish but do you have any questions?”

“Is there any other words with effect other than “status” “map” “Shop” “Box”?”

“Yes only these four”

“I see, that’s all for the question”

“Hai, then you have to fight a monster for the last tutorial”

“I knew it was something like that, but can everyone clear this thing? Won’t there be many who can’t do this”

“People who couldn’t finish the tutorial won’t receive the tutorial gift. ”

“So there was something like that. Oh well, I just have to fight. Then please start the fight”

“Do you need any weapon?”

“I can fight with my own hands. I don’t need weapons”

“I understand. Then let us start. The enemy is a single goblin”

Goblin suddenly appeared in front of me
His height seemed to not differ much from Tia
Around my waist
Wearing dirty ragged clothes, with green skin color
I guess it’s tutorial so he is not equipped with a weapon

Goblin is running toward me
He may have a body similar to a kid but he runs just as fast as an adult
I guess this all because he is a monster
I activate my True seeing Eyes

Race: Goblin Lv1
Sex: male

Special Skill
Strong lv 1

I guess he's just a goblin. I don't even have to see the description
I guess goblin and ogre are this kind of race

I dashed to the front.

I dodged his punch by leaning toward the left and gave a low kick to his thigh.

Goblin was crawling in pain, I kicked him in the head real hard.

Next moment I felt something come inside my body

I guess it was an effect of Usurper

For a first fight it was good I guess

What happened?

[-]-[-]-[-]

Chapter 7

“Whats wrong Tia? Was there anything weird?”

I asked Tia who was standing flabbergasted.

“Eh, ale? Over? Already?”

“You saw what I did. I thought It wasn’t that bad of a battle...”

“...Did Kurosaki-san learn something before?”

“Learn what?”

“Did you learn something like martial arts”

“Nope, I’ve never done anything of that sort. Also, I didn’t join any club”

“Even though you said that, how do I say it. Aren’t you used to it?”

“I’ve never experienced martial arts but I’m quite used to fighting. Because of my gaze I’ve been getting entangled by thugs”

——It’s not a good memory though

Maybe she heard my heart’s voice. Tia smiled bitterly.
It doesn’t fit a little loli to smile bitterly, is what I thought.

“But won’t people usually hesitate before taking lives.”

“Fumu... I guess. It’s not like I don’t feel anything”

“Eh, is that so?”

Tia looked really confused

——Well my face looks fine even after killing

True, people used to say “His eyes looks like he can kill 5 people”

“Is having determination easy to do?”

“No Idea. But I know that humans are living organism who are used to getting adapt to a new environment. It’s just that I adapted myself to this dungeon’s environment”

“It works...like that”

“Yup, it works like that”

I don’t even know it myself

But what I knew was I couldn’t survive in this dungeon with the mindset of my old self.

“So did the tutorial finish?”

“Ah, wait a moment. You have to pick up the Magic core”

“Magic core?... Aa, I remember you said something about that”

I look at the floor.

The body of the goblin were nowhere to be seen.

And in there was a red stone a size of a fingernail

“This is the magic core? It’s small”

“It is small because it is the lowest class core”

So the stronger the monster is the bigger the magic core.

And the bigger the magic core more points you get.

“Let’s exchange the magic core for points”

“Aah, roger”

I opened my status and inserted the magic core

—————

It popped up like so.

So a magic core of the goblin is worth 10 point

I enchanted SHOP and see the exchange list.

I found Onigiri in food column

1 costs 10 points

—— So killing one goblin is worth 1 onigiri, I'm not sure if it is cheap or not, but it looks like I have to get points whenever I can.

“That is it for the tutorial. Is there any more questions?”

Tia said with a slightly sad face.

“When I go to the higher floor, can I come back to lower floors?”

“Yes, the floor you once been, with the teleportation stone in the restroom you can teleport to it.”

“I see.... There is nothing more”

“I...See. Then this is the farewell....”

Tia had a tear dripping down her face.

I sighed

“Tia... Can we meet again?”

“...Eh?”

“Can I meet Tia again?”

“..I don't know. I wasn't informed of what happens to me after the tutorial”

“I see.... Than..”

I swallowed a large amount of air than——

“COME OUT!!!!!! SELF-PROCLAIMED GOD!!!!!”

——— I shouted

“Did you call me?”

“You came out just like that...”

“You were the one who called me”

Self-Proclaimed god was smiling

Tia is frozen

From me shouting really loudly and from self-proclaimed got suddenly appearing, she seemed to be surprised.

“Oi Self-Proclaimed god. I have a request to make”

“That’s not an attitude to ask a person for a request”

“You aren’t a person. Asshole you forced us to do the dirty job. At Least, you can help me a bit. Aren’t you a God ”

“Well, I guess that’s true. I might as well as listen to your request, what do you want”

“Give me Tia”

Tia opened her eyes really widely.

“Sorry but that’s not possible”

“I guessed so... Then its fine for some time. Let me meet Tia”

“...you, you were a lolicon?”

The god looked really disgusted

——- Annoying

“Stop saying such a stupid things. You know it don’t you”

“...Yes yes, I understand. You are so boring.”

“So, what about my wish?”

“I guess if only that it fine. I will put some limit to what she can speak. And the time you can meet her would be whenever you cleared one floor.”

“I understand. That is fine”

“You are the first one to ever say that. You are the really mysterious person. Even your gaze is scary.”

———My gaze have nothing to do with it.

“I guess my wish was somewhat accepted. Thank you for that ”

“Hee.... that was unexpected. You were able to say your gratitude”

“I’m basically a good human. It would be scary if the bad guy looked bad ”

“So a good guy with a criminal like a face is good?”

“Some people don’t mind. Yeah Tia”

“Eh, ah, eh?”

Tia is still panicking

“Etto, I don’t really understand but I like you Kurosaki-san!!!”

“...Hee, I only created her for the tutorial but you made her say this much... You’re pretty good”

I don’t know what I’m “pretty good” at, But don’t get interested in me.

“I guess it’s about time for farewell. Work Hard Kurosaki-kun”

Self-Proclaimed god disappeared while smiling.

“Tutorial gift is 1000 point. Please check it later.... And I am really happy we are able to meet again. I will be waiting for you forever...Please be safe”

While smiling wholeheartedly Tia disappeared

“I guess it is about time to go”

When I was about to walk off saying that I felt something come inside me. I checked my status and I saw a new title, and smile floated in my face.

Chapter 8

After bidding farewell to Tia, and I explored the dungeon for 3 hours

I battled monsters 7 times

So every 30 minutes 1 battle

In one battle you fight at most with 3 monsters

Here is my status now

“Oh, that is...”

While walking I saw a room with light protecting it
When I looked inside I saw a wide room
——Is this the resting place?

I might as well as enter it.
When I enter I felt the feeling of caution fade away.
This place makes me feel safe.
My guess was right I guess.

“I will rest here for a while then”

I’ve been remembering the battle.
I definitely improved in my footing and handling my body.
Is this the effect of Body Maneuver skill Body Maneuver didn’t really help in Stick technique but it really enhanced my body ability.
It feels my body lighter and stronger than when I was on Earth.

“Hmm, what should I do from now on”
Now I have to think about my future course.
At least in the battle, I never felt a true danger to my life.
Thanks to my skill I probably won’t be in danger, at least in this floor.
——But It is not good to be careless.

I now understood that you can get plenty of points from defeating monsters and because of this I have to think about what I am going to do in the future.
“And I was lucky enough to get my first foothold” and I breathe out feeling relief

As my plan for future, big idea is to conquer this dungeon.
And to do that I have to defeat the Floormaster.
To defeat the floor master, I have to find the master room
For now, I have no Idea where it is.
I should continue my exploration, for the monster, meet and destroy, so to increase or increment my skills and points.

...So I will make this place my foothold for a while and explore around and widen my map.
For now, I guess 1 week should be fine like this.
If I couldn’t find anything till then, then I should find another foothold.

Now that I made a rough plan, there are other things which I should think about.

For example my classmates

I'm saying it over and over but, I am going to say it over and over again, I am a loner

I don't have any friends I want to protect

Even so I'm not sad enough to say "What? Classmate? Is it edible?"

If they are in front of me Its not bad to help them out a little.

But truth to be told I don't want my skill to know to others.

I don't want to stand out.

After thinking it over and over again I came to a conclusion

I won't be the one to initiate on searching them

If they are not in some sort of trouble, I won't interfere unnecessary.

I will only help those who seeks for it.

I think this can be my position for now.

Things like this need a decided stance....

Good thing I have True seeing Eyes.

If the opponent is lying I can know it instantly

I can use it to see if they are really in need or not.

Later on, I bought some snacks and food and satisfied my hunger, I slept in the corner of the room.

I guess I'm more tired than what I thought.

Chapter 9

How long was I sleeping for?
I've woke up now.

——— I can't hear my mom's angry roar.
A morning like this really nice.
I was thinking about it but is it really morning here?
The dungeon covered with rocks, so the sunlight doesn't reach here.
When I checked in the shop, I found a watch but it costs 1000 points.
It is not something worth 100 onigiris.
When I have more than enough I might think about it.

I got slightly hungry so I choose food randomly and bought it.
I kind of depleted points really quickly
Maybe I'm being a bit too luxurious
—— I want to find an enemy more efficiently
If there is any skill with monster sensing power, I would really want that

Now that I had enough rest.
I should start exploring.
While thinking so, I left the room

2 hours passed by after I left the room.
I fought 5 battles but there was only goblin or kobold which appeared.
—— Maybe if I get closer to the boss room the stronger monster appears?
I'm sure there should be more than 2 types of monster in first floor

When I was thinking that.
I saw 3 monsters not far away from me
They kinda look like a goblin, but one of them has a really big body.
His height is around my shoulders.

Monsters also noticed me and started nearing us.
Without hurry, I activated True Seeing Eyes.

He must be superior goblin species.

He has 2 goblin subordinates

———I will exterminate the weaklings first

Thinking that, I ran toward the enemy.
The HoboGoblin saw me coming, so he pushed the goblin to the front.
He must be checking me out, it is convenient for me.
While dodging the goblin’s attack, I kicked him so that he will fall.
Next moment I quickly crushed the head with a stomp and killed it.
Another goblin came at me.
He is speeding toward me with a sword in its hand.
I punched his arm then punched him in the face by the help of his momentum.
I crushed his head after he fell, just in case.

The Hobgoblin became more cautious toward me as I killed two of his subordinate.
He is moving around me in a circle pointing the sword at me.
I stood still and follow him with my eyes.
The moment he positioned himself on my side, Hobgoblin came running at me after brandishing his sword.
Quickly I positioned myself and prepared my fist.
He was surprised at me for reacting really quickly, he tried to slash me.
I dodged it like how I dodge the stick attack of goblin and I caught the hobgoblin’s neck. I threw him on the floor than stomped him, he stopped breathing after 3 times.

Even if they evolved into superior rank with stronger strength, they only amount to this much since they were the goblin.
His intelligence is low and can’t make a quick decision.

If it amounts to this much I don't have to worry about them.

———No, I should not be careless. My life is on the line.
Yes, this is not a game. Carelessness will lead to death.
While thinking so I checked my status.

I became Level 8
And my body maneuver skill leveled up
I should become stronger with this pace.
Thinking so, I picked the magic core and continued on my exploration.

4 hours past after my exploration.
Right now I'm back in the restroom.

I fought many monsters and was able to widen my map.
But I still haven't met other people.
I must've been teleported to a place with fewer people.
Or maybe they are already....
...I should rest for now.
I went to sleep in the corner of the room.

Chapter 10

After I woke up I go explore the opposite side I went yesterday.
Maybe I can find new things like Hobgoblin

I met a dead end after killing monsters in the way.
It seems like a box is placed here.
It is quite a big box
———Is this the treasure box Tia talked about?
When I looked at it with True seeing eyes I could see that it is a treasure chest
but I could not see what is inside.
It also was written that there is ‘No Trap’
This is really high spec power.
While feeling safe opened the treasure chest

In inside there was a sword and a bluish liquid thing inside a magic potion looking container.
I activate the True Seeing eyes as usual.

Name: Steel Sword
Type: One handed sword
Special Ability: None

Name: Low Potion
Type: Healing Liquid
Effect: heals light injury and fatigue.

...I see.
These items fits the first floor.
But it is also quite useful
I was thinking whether or not continue on using my hand but let’s change to the sword for now.

I also want to try the sword technique I stole from Hobgoblin.

I continue on my way wielding a new weapon.
The monster appeared in the front. 2 Kobolds.

One of the kobolds ran toward me holding a spear.
I blocked the spear and kicked him in the stomach.
I cut his head off when he stopped for a moment, and he just died like that.
——So this is the effect of the skill. Sword feels like my body.
It feels like a professional Kendo player, my body remembers the way to use a sword.
No, “I know ” the way.
To steal skill means to steal the opponent’s experience.

While thinking that, the second Kobolt threw the spear at me.
I was too surprised at the effectiveness of the skill and failed to dodge.

“Kuh...It hurts motherf*cker!”

My wound hurts like hell.
I was able to survive but I injured my shoulder.
Even though I always said carelessness will lead to death, I am pissed at myself for actually being careless, I pierced the kobold’s body with my sword, and I crushed the head of the fallen kobold.

After I picked up the magic core, I thought back to the battle.
——-complacency. This injury is caused by my unconscious complacency.
The truth of me never getting injured.
Achievement of killing superior ranked species with only hand.
They all added up to my stupid pride.
——-Let this be a lesson. There will be no second time.
This place does not allow mistakes.
To survive in the dungeon where danger is everywhere, you must adapt to it.
I Inscribed this to my heart.

Now, that is the end for reflection
I need to move on, Heal my wound.
The spear kobold wielded was rusted.
It won’t be good if I get any disease in a place like this.

I have to heal myself quick.

—Maybe I should use that.

I took out the low potion I found in a treasure chest.

When I poured the potion to my injury, it started to close the injury.

If the injury is only this much then it could heal easily.

It is a sort of a representative medicine in a fantasy, When I see it in real life it really is amazing.

“My injury is healed so I should start moving”

After exploring for another 6 hours I found a new resting place.

For now, I should enter is what I thought but it seems, there was already a guest there.

And this is how I met my classmate in the dungeon for the first time.

——What I didn't know right now was that this meeting will greatly affect my future morality.

Chapter 11

“Eh...Uwaaaa!!!”

The moment I entered the room, the man inside started screaming.
——-Fuck, should I kill this guy.

He noticed my sullen mood, and he trembled slightly.

“Eh, Ah, Etto....So, sorry. That..”

“No, I don’t mind”

——I care a lot. I really care a lot
At least look at me.

After 5 minutes he seemed to calm down
“Etto...You are....Kurosaki-kun right?”

“Aaah I am Kurosaki. You are...Azakura..right?”

“Unn...Yes.”

“Aaa, how should I say it, You were alive huh”

“Unn, Maa.. somehow I was able to survive”

Truth to be told, I didn’t think he would be alive.
Azakura Kimito is his name.
He is not a guy who stand out, and neither a loner.
He is a kind of guy who seems to blend in with the crowd.
An average man.

——-That’s why I’m surprised that he is alive
He does not look so weak or became thinner, at least he must have eaten a meal or two.
It means he killed a monster and gained a point.
I’m astounded by the fact that he was able to fight.

“You, cleared the tutorial?”

“..Un, yes. But after that, I never fought again”

“I’ve found here by avoiding monsters while moving”

“And I’ve been using tutorial clear reward to....”

“I see....”

“Etto, Kurosaki-kun...have been fighting..to get here?”

“Ma, I’ve killed every monster I saw at sight”

“This is the second rest room I found”

I said that and sighed lightly

“That is amazing...I couldn’t possibly force myself to do that”

“But what are you going to do for the future”

“The point will sooner or later finish”

“U, Unn. It is like that...”

“But, Fighting for me.”

He laughed self-mockingly.

“But you were able to fight in the tutorial?”

“No, I couldn’t fight at first. But when I was running away for a long time, Fairy gave a helping hand so...”

“Fairy did that?It gave you a helping hand, did you fight?”

“Uunn. she set the monster to be still”

“And as a compensation, she decreased the reward by half”

——I see, it worked like that.

“But you were able to kill right?than..”

“I just can’t! When I see them move, my body starts trembling...”

“This it the end for me. I can only die here....”

I couldn’t say anything to Azakura.

I didn’t know what to say.

But I shouldn’t give him a helping hand irresponsibly, oh well its not like I’m gonna help anyway.

Plus Azakura is not asking for my help
Because—————

————This guy, He lied.

Chapter 12

——Azakura Kamito is lying

I first noticed it when Azakura said this.

“...Unn, yes. But after that, I never fought again”

While Azakura was saying this, there came a black smoke coming from Azakura's body.

This was the first time I saw this phenomenon but I understood quickly.

——I see, This is the power of True seeing eyes....

Azakura lied some more after this.

This is what I could come up with after speaking with Azakura.

He burrowed the power of Fairy. ←- Truth

He didn't battle after the tutorial ←- False

His point will be exhausted if he continue on ←- False

He trembles seeing Monsters ←- Truth

It seems it was true he gets trembled when he sees the monster.

He must have fought him even though he is scared.

But if that is true, why does he have to lie.

I don't understand this.

“I know you will scorn me if I say this but.... ”

He is speaking while lying down.

“Can you help me....Fight the monsters.”

“Azakura your going to fight?”

“Unn...I can't keep on like this...”

“I don't want to die this soon”

These words are his true desire.

“..I see. ...Alright, I will lend you a hand”

He might've lied.

But, I couldn't just leave him be.

"I will weaken him. And you finish him off"

"Unn, I understand"

Right now, we left the rest room and is exploring.
I',letting Azakura finish off the monsters who appeared.

"..Did you get used to it?"

"I guess so"

He looks slightly pale. He has been trembling for a while.

"This is enough for today. Let's return to the room"

"Unn... Thanks, Kurosaki-kun"

"No problem"

After we got back to the room, we ate.

"...How do you feel right now?"

"...Unn, I feel fine. Thanks for worrying about me"

"Can you keep going by yourself?"

"...Not sure... I don't know yet"

This word was a lie.

Azakura can already fight by himself.

Than why did Azakura ask for my help.

I don't understand.

"..Let's just sleep for tonight"

"Unn, we should.Can you help me again tomorrow too."

"Aah, I don't mind"

"I see, Thanks. I feel really gratified"

"Kurosaki-kun is actually not a scary person, as I thought you were"

He said so and smiled a little.

"Good night. Help me out tomorrow too, thanks."

——Why, Azakura? Why do you have to—— ——Lie like this

Chapter 13

Tomorrow. Yes, tomorrow.

The moment he said these words, the black cloud emerged again.

Azakura thinks he won't survive till tomorrow.

No, this guy probably.....

A room with only two people.

Breathing sound gets quieter and quieter.

...Breathing sound stopped. No, it decreased。

The side where the breathing sound stopped, a man stood up.

And starts moving quietly and slowly, as if to not disturb me from waking up.

For the other side, the breathing sound is calm and tranquil.

This guy goes closer to the man who is sleeping soundly and look at his sleeping face.

——He looked like this.

He thought, only this.

——He seems to be sleeping peacefully

He smiled with pleasure.

As if he is able to accomplish what he dreamed of, he is trembling really happily.

He brandished his sword and flung it up.

Without any hesitation, he tried to cut off the male's head.

The moment it about pierced through, the male suddenly moved.

The sword pierced through the stone floor and made a loud bang sound.

The guy who was sleeping peacefully stood up instantly and jumped backwards to take some distance.

—I knew this would happen

I sighed as I thought it in my heart.

I knew Azakura was scheming something.

And the one which is not good for me.

That is why I waited.

I waited till he took off his sheep's clothing and show his bloodthirsty wolf side.
I've waited for it all this time.

"...Azakura, you got some guts"

"..I didn't think you would be able to dodge"

He said that and looked at me with greed.

He looks like a predator who found its prey.

"Why would you do this?"

"Why? It's obvious"

—To become stronger

Azakura said with a disgusting smile.

"You could just kill the monster to become stronger. You've been doing it all this time"

"Ale, you already knew? I thought I could trick you easily"

"I have a skill with appraisal ability. You can't lie in front of me"

"..I see, so this is why my attack failed"

"Yes it is like that...and why would you try to kill me if you want to become stronger?"

"I guess, I should teach you something"

"It seems if the other worlder kill another other worlder than he gets more EXP than normal. And you can get the skill they own."

"Why do you know about this."

"I got it from Tutorial. I asked this in my last question, and it answered back"

“You don’t understand people like me? I am not special person like you”

“...Special?”

“Unn, yes. Special. Rare is also fine to describe you”

“What part of me is special? Are you talking about my eyes?”

“Uunn, no. What I am talking about is more about the essence.”

“Essense? I don’t understand”

“You won’t know? Since you are special”

“For you all people, for you all people will never, will never understand me.”

“...The average person like me.”

——I see.

I’m starting to feel like I understand what Azakura might be trying to say.

This guy called me ‘Special’

It is right but at the same time wrong.

Maybe I am just ‘crazy’

Even though I am in this kind of situation, I didn’t get much panicked.

I didn’t feel bad for killing a monster, who also have a life.

Maybe a person like me, has somewhere that is ‘crazy’.

But, Azakura is different.

He was a normal guy.

Without any consent, were brought to the battlefield and was forced to fight.

At the end of the tutorial, the moment he took the life of the goblin, probably Azakura’s weak heart——

—— Got broken.

He starts trembling when he is in front of a monster.

I thought it was something which came from fear.

But this guy is different.

Probably it is not from a fear.

——it is adrenaline.

In front of a monster, and the truth that he must take its life, he can't help but get excited.

He can't face the truth without it.

He can only run from the truth with this way.

Azakura's heart got broken. He couldn't do anything about it.

Maybe this is the 'normal'.

Then I think he sees must be 'crazy'.

He was able to face the truth without having his heart broken, I look like a monster to him.

"You are really amazing. You not only faced the truth, you tried to save me. Even knowing that I lied."

"That's why I wanted to kill you"

"I wanted to get the power after I killed you."

"Than maybe I could've become stronger"

"I thought I could become 'special'"

"...You will never become one. Even if you stole my power"

"So why don't we just call it quits"

——I've never talked to him before. I only knew him by his face. He was only worth that much.

But I didn't want to abandon him.

"stop?.....Aha, aha, ahahahahahahahahaaaa!"

"Stop? Stop now, it is already too late!?"

"..let's just stop. Let's conquer defeat the monster and get stronger than we can conquer the dungeon."

"..You are really amazing.... I knew you were 'special'"

“But. I am different. Me and you are different”

“It is impossible to stop. And I don’t have any will to stop”

“I’ve understood your ability after looking at you for a whole day”

“It would’ve been great if I could get you while you were sleeping but, it didn’t proceed as easily as that”

“That’s why I am going to face you upfront”

He said that and took out something from the Box

“Do you know what this is?”

The thing Azakura took out has a shape of a smoke bomb.

“No Idea, is it a dango or something? You want to become my friend?”

“Nope, wrong! So Kurosaki-kun also can joke. But it isn’t funny at all, though”

“You really changed”

“Really? I became like this probably because of the dungeon”

“..True. what is that thing?”

“This is an item which contains poisonous gas. I found it in the Treasure Chest”

“You don’t mind letting me know? If I dodge it won’t your plan fail”

“I don’t mind since you won’t be able to dodge it”

“Hou, such confidence”

“Yup, If I use my gifted skill I can kill you for sure.”

He said that and ran towards me.

And I tried to run further toward the back but unfortunately, this room is not that wide.

And Azakura is standing in the entrance, and it will be hard to escape.

—this guy, he is quite a strategist

He is grinning widely and is approaching me.

This all must be in his calculation

Now I am trapped in the wall.

“Hahahah, Now you don’t have anywhere to run? You should just die quietly”

“You don’t know yet. Even if you try throwing that at me, all I have to do is dodge and I will win.”

“Unn, true. You probably will be able to dodge.”

—If I throw at you.

Azakura threw the thing he carried to the floor

The moment Azakura’s hand left the item, I dashed toward Azakura.

He has so many openings due to him thinking he already won, So I punched him real hard than Jumped outside.

Poison gas spreads really quickly

It’s not something a 1st-floor item is capable of.

This is the effect of the Azakura’s Gifted skill.

—-2x Tools effect

This is one of the gifted skill Asakura has.

The effect is how the words read.

It multiplies the effect of the item he used by twice

For the Poison gas, he used, this time, it can multiply the sphere of range and it’s effect by twice.

By using this Azakura tried to kill me without having to throw at me.

But won’t Azakura suck in the gas?

But, there is no need for the worry.

—Resistance against Abnormal states

This is the second Gifted skill Azakura has.

So Azakura won’t get affected by poison nor paralysis.

Meaning he thought he would survive even using the poison gas on the whole room.

—I already knew it, though.

The moment I met him I knew his skill.

I was able to know his plan the moment he took out the Poisonous Gas.

So all I needed to do was wait for the best timing

The time when Azakura is most careless, I used this timing to run out of the room.

The room outside can't affect the room inside so I thought so opposite also may be the same. And my idea was right, the poisonous gas inside didn't leak to outside.

I waited till the poisonous gas dispersed and went inside.

Azakura fainted after I hit him.

I neared Azakura and smacked his face.

"..Unn.I...What happened..."

Azakura opened his eyes and woke up slowly.

And he looks at me.

His jaws dropped and became frozen.

"Why.. How.."

"Why I am alive? You want to know"

I told him everything

I have the skill to see the status.

And I already knew what you were thinking.

And you were playing on my hand all this time.

"What.. what's this... than.. Aren't I..."

He is mumbling while looking down.

And he suddenly looked up

"...amazing Kurosaki-kun. I knew you were 'special'"

Azakura smiled disgustingly.

“Than , what are you going to do to me? There seems to be no jail here.”

“Kill”

I answered back casually.

Azakura jaws dropped again.

“Eh? Ah, Eh? What is this? What do you mean?”

“You tried to kill me and failed. Then it should be normal for me to kill you”

“Eh, wait a moment! Aren’t we a classmate!!”

—Don’t spout some bullshit now.

“You were the one to lay your hands first. It is your fault for being careless”

“No! I don’t want to die! I don’t want to die!!”

Azakuar tried to run

I kick him in the stomach and rolled him.

“I won’t let you run away. Repent with your life”

—I said it forcefully.

But I cannot forgive this guy.

He cannot be forgiven

He crossed the line.

I should eliminate him here.

This is how we live ‘here’a way to survive the Dungeon

“Hii, no, help, please help!!”

Azakura tries to run desperately

Looking miserable with mucus and tears all over his face, he tries to run towards the exit.

I tightly hold the sword Azakura was holding.

I oppress the slight hesitancy I feel from my heart.

Azakura looking fearfully at me.

I raise the sword up high———

It is getting harder to level up my level and skill level.
No new monsters.
But I found a place where there is the higher rate of Hobgoblin appearing.
Maybe there is a floor master room on that side.
I would like to move from this rest room.
——I have enough points so I should do that.

I started moving.
...It is true there are more Hobgoblins appearing.
And the normal Goblin and Kobolds are stronger and higher level than the ones before.
I should continue forward.

——2 hours later.
“..Oh?that is...”
I saw a really familiar sight in front of me.
I went near it.
....It is a treasure chest

I check if there are any traps using True seeing eyes, and opened the treasure chest.
There was Low potion and——
—— “What is this”

I saw crystal ball which I’ve never seen before
There is a white spiral inside.
When I appraise with True seeing eyes——

Name: Skill Orb

Type: Treasure

Effect: Bestows Spotter to the user

====For real

This is the skill orb.....

I believe, Tia said it is really rare, and it is really hard to get.

I didn't think I would get it here.....

And it is the skill I don't have....

Let's just use it.

I didn't know how to use it but, when I was touching randomly, the Orb shined and went inside my body.

When I check my status, Spotter lv 1 was added to my special skill

I tried using it.

-----This amazing. Truly amazing. Definitely amazing.

This is so useful that I got really excited.

Spotter is something like radar.

It shows a point in the map.

I believe the blue point is me.

That means the 3 red point must be the monster nearby.

It was a monster.

2 goblin and hobgoblin.

I eradicated them using one handed sword.

Spotter is really amazing skill.

I've been using spotter for the past 2 hours and It really helps me find the enemy a lot easier.

Plus it is really efficient

I really was fortunate to obtain it in the earlier floor.

I used spotter and destroyed every red spot I see, and continued forward. It is about time I should stop the exploration for today, but unfortunately, I didn't find the rest room.

Hmm, it is my first time experiencing this situation.

I should experience resting outside the resting room.

Chapter 15

—Run, Run, Run like a madman

Just look at the front.

—Run, Run, Run like a madman

Kill every obstacle on the way with one hit.

Run till what you must find.

It's been 3 days since I started Forceful Expedition.

Finally, I found it.

A heavy looking ornamented door.

It has the aura of suppressing the weak.

I knew it the moment I saw it.

There is a strong one inside.

There is no mistake it is a Floormaster.

— — — Finally, I can move on.

For now, I peek inside.

I need to know the enemy.

While thinking so I opened the door.

Even though it looks heavy, but it opened easily.

When I peek inside I saw..... A goblin.

There is two Hobgoblin in front of that goblin.

And there is 3 goblin around the Hobgoblin.

Everyone is looking down, not showing any sign of moving.

There is 9 enemy present.

I want to know what kind of goblin is in the middle, but because I am outside my True seeing eyes did not work.

I have to look at it when I am in battle

I went back to the restroom I found yesterday.

I will rest today and battle tomorrow.

I woke up.

I stretched my body and yawned.
I eat lightly and check my body condition.
I check on my weapons and tools.
I am prepared
Time to fight.
Thinking so I headed out for the boss room.

Right now I am standing in front of a heavy and Coerciatic door.
——It is fine. I can win.
Trying to encourage myself, I repeat it in my heart.
I am confident.
I should be a really high level in skill and level, for this first floor.
And I experienced many things.
What I need to do is fight like I always have done.
I pushed the door open and entered the room filled with coldness.

[]-[]-[]

Chapter 16

There is 9 goblin in the room.

A greenish small goblin wearing dirty ragged cloth.

A Brown goblin wearing a hardened cloth

Lastly, a Huge Blackish goblin wearing a dirty armour.

In a tranquil space, Without saying a word, looking down with no movement, it reminds me of a doll.

—For sure, there won't be any demand for this dirty looking doll.

While thinking so, I take steps after steps nearing it.

The moment my distance between the goblins became 10 meters.

The black goblin in the back, showing slight elegance lifted its face up.

His pair of eyes glints strangely in the slightly dark room.

He looks at me quietly, his dignified look as he stands, shows a dignity and solemnness a monster should not have possessed.

I activated my True Seeing Eyes.

Title:

Master of the First Floor

Ruler of Goblin

=====As expected from the floor master
He owns this many high leveled skill.
And he even owns Gifted Skill

Gifted Skill [Leader]
Strengthens your subordinates.
Get's stronger with more subordinates.

This is a really troublesome skill.
So the surrounding goblins are also at a different level.

Goblin Lord said something.
That moment, the subordinates lifted its heads and started taking a battle stance.
There is not a single disorder present as if they are an army of some country.

Goblin Lord raised his long sword and made a war cry.
And he spoke again in a language different from humans.
I don't know what it is saying.
But I think I can feel what it is trying to tell.

——This is a declaration of war. Declaration of war against the enemy in front .
Even though he is a monster it held honour to its enemy and had pride in the fight.

Before I said they looked like an army, but now they look more like a loyal knight who follows the way of knighthood.

Even when I am in this kind of place, I felt really moved. I felt deeply moved.
The fight should be like this. A battle betting it's honour. A goblin who is a monster, I felt he thought me that.

Then I will answer your call. With all my ability.
Goblin lord pointed it's long sword at me and sharply said one word.
He must have said this.

『"Let's start our fight"』.

———Finally, both sides started their action.

Hobgoblin and Goblin are blocking the way to Lord.

They are in a stance ready to kill the sworn enemy with, swords, sticks, and short sword.

——Then I will make my move first.

I dashed toward the goblin wielding a stick.

And that goblin as if answering to my attack, came rushing at me.

As expected from the Gifted skill from the goblin lord, it's movement cannot be compared to a normal goblin.

——But it is still not fast enough.

Even comparing my level, it is more than enough.

And my Skill levels are overbearing.

There is no chance I will suffer defeat.

I dodge the attack and decapitate his head, slash at its torso, take his life.

Some I will punch, some I kicked, some I crush it do death.

Moving without stop, and lessen the enemy with certainty.

Eliminating goblin didn't take much time.

Only one Hobgoblin remains.

I dodge the incoming sword strike and slashed its arm.

And using the momentum I cut off his head.

Next moment, I felt a really strong killing intent from my back.

I quickly jumped front and rolled to lessen the impact.

I stood straight quickly and took further distance.

Goblin Lord slashed his long sword but missed.

We both took battle stance and glared at each other

Goblin was the first one to make a move.

Goblin Lord utilizing its long arms slashed the sword from the left.

I couldn't dodge the attack so I blocked it with my sword.

But, the timing was bad and the position I was in was really unstable so I was pushed back.

I fell to the ground, and the opponent approached me while brandishing the sword.

I tried to push him back but, I could muster any strength.

He pushed me to the point of no return.

This is the first time I felt death.

Something swelled up from the bottom of my heart.

——Is this fear? No, it is not.

This is not fear

——Than What is it? This feeling which swells up from the inside, facing the reality of death approaching.

I know this feeling. It's been a while I felt this strong urge.

—-This is Anger.

Don't play with me. I won't end in this dirty and dark place. I have a parent in Earth. I finally made a friend. I have a cat which I feed sometimes. There is a teacher who understood my feelings.

In such a place. In such a place I can't die. I'm not allowed to give up. I will survive no matter what. I will survive even if I have to eat you. This guy, the goblin in front of me, I will Kill it.

The strong negative feeling inside my head. The desire to live filled with Anger and Hatred. I bit my lips and glare at the monster.

If only looking at them would kill it, then my gaze could've killed them millions of times, I hit him with my strong killing intent.

Suddenly———

——-Monster shivered.

For a moment goblin's body trembled.

It lost its grip on the sword.

I used this opening and raised my sword, and miserable ran away.
I took some distance from it.
I dropped my sword. It dropped below the monster.
What happened. I don't have time to think about that.
I don't know what happened but Goblin Lord is not in its best condition.
If I had to kill, now is the time.

Quickly using martial arts I attacked.
Goblin lord brandish it's sword but it didn't have an overbearing strength like before.
I dodged the attack, I just punched him desperately, and kicked.
Kicked his legs. Punched his stomach. Kicked his balls. Punched his chin. I elbowed its nose.
Without stopping. Without stopping I attacked.
And I pick up the dropped sword and pierce through its chest.
Even with that it tried to reach me with its hand, so I dashed to his back and decapitate his head.

—I won. I survived. I am alive right now.
The life I grabbed on. I tightly hold my fist.
And this is how I conquered the first floor.

—What happened at that time.
I know it now.
That was a special skill coercivity aura.
The skill which never worked.
Probably to activate it you must have a strong killing intent towards the enemy.
It never activated before because I never was in danger.
However it is, it is not something easy to use.

I checked my status and saw Leader skill.
I don't have any idea how to use it right now but maybe someday it will be useful.
I don't know, for now.

No matter what this is the end of the first floor.
The instant Goblin lord disappeared the door in the depth appeared.
When I opened the door, I saw a magic circle thingy in the floor.

If I ride on this I probably I'll reach the second floor

——I might as well as go now. It will be alright.

I stepped into the magic circle.

The magic circles shined with light which surrounded me.

The scenery changed.

From the rock made room to the wooden house.

In the wall, it is written “Dungeon second floor”

It seems I arrive at the second floor safely.

Chapter 17

After leaving the house which smelled of wood, I saw a forest filled with life and trees.

I walked for a bit.

The place I was transported to was a log house.

30meter around the log house is a plain, and outside of that is a forest.

The feeling of safety that I felt in the first-floor rest room, was also felt here.

This place is most likely the safe land.

I look at the forest around, compared to the rock cave like the first floor, I felt astonished.

And I looked up and saw something amazing.

—There is a sky. And even sun, and cloud.

The sky that I haven't seen in a while, I felt something really hard to describe.

Looking at the wide sky, Maybe I felt nostalgic.

Then I heard a really familiar voice from the back.

—It's been a while, Kurosaki-san

I turned around.

It feels like I reunited with a person who I've befriended for eternity.

"...Aa, It's been a while, Tia"

—She smiled really sweetly.

"First, let me congratulate you on conquering the first floor, Kurosaki-san"

"Aa, Thanks"

"And, It is a good thing you are safe and sound"

"There was some dangerous situations also"

Right now I am talking face to face with Tia in the log house.

That Self-Proclaimed god said.

If I conquered the floor he will let me meet Tia.

It seems like he followed the promise.

And Tia's been smiling really happily for a while.

“I didn’t think you would conquer it this quickly”

“The God-sama was saying this also. “Haha, I knew it, Kurosaki-kun is really interesting” ”

He knew what.

“Maa, I worked hard that’s why”

“It isn’t normal for a person to conquer a floor master solo, even if it’s just a first floor”

—It isn’t normal hah.

I was reminded of this one guy.

If I meet him again will he say I am special again?

My behaviour must have been weird, so Tia looked at me with a question mark in her head.

“Etto...did something happen?”

“Iya, It’s nothing. It’s just I remembered something that happened on the first floor”

“A...Etto..sono...”

Tia seemed to be hesitating to say something.
—maybe.

“Tia, did you already know?”

“Hya!?kn, know what, whyate alu shaying!?”

She is panicking really strongly. It seems like I was right.

“...So you knew it. How?”

“Au... Etto, Truthfully the God-sama told me “You are a Kurasaki-kun’s friend so I will let you see his adventure””

—Damn, really.

“Damn! That Self-Proclaimed god!”

“I’m sorry! That, I peeped at you without consent....”

Tia looked like she is about to cry.

“...No, it’s not that I am angry at you looking at me but....”

“..But...?”

“..Aren’t you scared?”

“Eh, scared for what?”

“I mean aren’t you scared of me”

“I killed my own race and a classmate that is.”

“Etto... It’s true Kurosaki-san was little bit scary at that time”

“...and, looked really sad”

She continued on.

“If at that time Kurosaki-san didn’t fight back, I probably wouldn’t be able to meet you today. And I wouldn’t be able to meet you ever again.”

—That is why I am really happy you survived.

She said so and floated her smile.

A Little bit, really little bit, I felt like crying.

Maybe I was the one who was scared.

I killed my classmate. I didn’t regret.

I didn’t want to die. I couldn’t die.

I chose to survive in this dungeon.

I decided to conquer it and return back to earth.

That’s why I killed. To live.

That’s Why I killed. For myself.

That’s why I killed. To be reunited with her.

But I was scared.

That maybe Tia might reject me.

I didn’t want to lose my first ‘Friend’

That’s why I was happy. She accepted me.

It's not that my sin will disappear.

And I couldn't burden someone with it.

I am not allowed to do so.

I killed Azakura. This sin is mine and mine alone.

I already made a resolution.

But, the little 'friend' in front of me, I was too happy, way too happy, that she was happy that I lived.

"...Thank you, Tia."

I whispered it in a low voice.

"?Did you say something?"

"Iya, it's nothing. No need to worry"

"Haa....I understand"

"I want to ask you several questions"

"Ah, hai. Please ask me anything!!"

"Even though I said that, there is a restriction to what I am allowed to say"

"I know. Then, the first thing is..."

I asked many things to Tia.

What are the others doing?

How is the second floor?

Why does the dungeon have a sky?

Is there any limit to the level. Etc..

Summarising what tia answered.

She can't reveal too much detail on others. But some of them met each other and formed a party and is exploring. There is already several deaths.

– the second floor is basically a forest field. Insect type and animal type monster is present, Insect type utilizes poisons and animals form their own herd, so I must be careful on these factors.

The sky we see in the dungeon is fake. It gives a suitable environment for the Humans (food).

The highest level is 100. And highest skill level is 10. If we compare it with the earth's masterman ship lv1 is white, lv3 is colored, lv5 is black, and lv7 is teacher level(6th dan in the karate or Judo), lv 9 is red (Karate 10th dan, highest level) and lv10 is a legendary master level.

The oppressive pressure I force to the opponent is the one step before being a master, thinking these stupid things made feel sad, I understood most of it now. It becomes super hard to level up the skill from lv5, but before this mostly anyone can get it.

I asked why you didn't explain it to me in the tutorial, she said: "You didn't ask". True.

The tutorial teaches the minimum requirement and won't teach if not asked.

Chapter 18

After hearing the necessary information, we talked about my favorite food or something like how I always get treated horribly because of my glare, We talked this useless stuff.

Talking with Tia was really fun.

This is the first time I felt fun talking with other people.

Since the person who I can call ‘Friend’ was Tia, and she is my first one that is

When we noticed, 3 hours already passed by.

Tia said she had to go back now.

We promised each other that we will meet again, Tia looked like she was about to cry but, smiled really kindly and disappeared.

Being alone in the log house, it felt that it bigger than I thought.

I remembered the party the classmates are forming.

If I had any chance, then I can try it.

But I can’t trust people easily since the Azakura incident.

——And there probably no one who want to be with me

I laughed self-mockingly and sighed.

I should work hard from tomorrow. The Second-floor exploration will begin.

—————next morning—————

“I should head out now”

I ate cup noodle when I woke up in the morning and prepared

This is the first exploration in the second floor.

I have to be really keen to danger.

I see it is definitely stronger than the monsters on the first floor. Comparing only the level, it won't differ much from the Hobgoblin, but if the monster who appears in this shallow place is this strong than the deeper I go the stronger the enemy will become.

..But there is something that is bothering me.

“Why does the Wolf have body maneuver skill?”

I don't think it will use its 2 legs and hand to fight.

[TLNOTE: In The Japanese language the body maneuver skill is written as body skill, meaning he is confused why does the animal have a skill that human use]

—No, it's different. Body Maneuver is to enhance the movement of the body.

It can be said as a Body control power.

—This is good. There is no loss in leveling up Body maneuver skill.

If I hunt quite an amount of them, I should be able to level up.

There is three forest wolf.

Tia said, that the animal type monsters form a herd, it seem it was the truth.

First, let's fight them.

I jumped from the tree I was hiding and dashed toward Forest wolf.

One of them noticed and started barking at me.

At that moment, I felt an impact which hit me.

It didn't give me much damage but I was surprised and my body stopped moving.

One of them took notice of the opening and jumped at me.

It opened it's mouth and is approaching me while trying to devour my neck.

I got up quickly and dodged the wolf which was attacking from the left.

The wolf showed it's back as the momentum caused it to stop, and I slashed him from the behind.

I noticed the presence in my back.

2 wolf is nearing me from the back.

The right wolf jumped like the wolf from before.

This time, I slash it from the front.

At that moment, from the shadow of that wolf came another one.

It saw the timing where my hand was down after brandishing the arm and jumped towards me.

Without panicking, the moment it jumped I kicked it's jaw from the below.

It circled through the air and fell to its back

I stabbed its head and killed it.

Seeing only the result I didn't get any injury but that thing it did at first surprised me.

That should be the special skill roar.

It attacks with the voice.

I got it using Usurper but can I even use it.

I tried.

“—Kaaaaa!!!!”

I barked like I was spitting out air strongly.

Next moment, the surrounding air trembled.

This was the right way to use the skill.

I don't know if I should use it frequently, but it will be useful by the way I use it.

It is already 1 hour after the exploration.

I met monsters three times.

Forest Wolf, Poison spider and Paralyze Butterfly.

...The name says it all.

I guess it is easy to understand so it is ok.

Poison spider was a spider with the height that reaches my thigh.

If the human who hates insects saw it, he or she might faint.

It spits out purple strings, and that string contains poison.

If it touches your skin, your body will tremble with pain and it will start rotting it.

I didn't try it I just saw it with True seeing eyes.

I have the Gifted skill Azakura gave so it will have no effect on me but just because of that I won't try to touch it.

I avoided the strings and strike its head with the sword and killed it.

Paralyze Butterfly had the same height as the Poison Spider.
It spreads the golden colored powder, and using its wings to create winds, it blows it to me.
But it didn't affect me so I just walked toward it and killed it.

When I kill these monsters I can gain "Poison Attack" "Paralyze attack" kills.
These skills are really useful.
When I saw the effects I was grinning stupidly.

There is another skill I stole from the Poison Spider.
It is a special skill "Create String".
I got really excited thinking I can finally become a real Spooderman, but even if I attach the string to the tree, I cannot contract the string.
Maybe my skill level is too low.
I decided that someday I will surely be a spooderman.

Chapter 19

I explored for another 2 hours and decided to go back.
It took 3 hours to get back to the Log house.
In these trips, I found 2 more kinds of monster.
Hide Wolf and Sleep Sheep.

Hide wolf was a black-furred wolf.
A bit bigger than forest wolf.
This guy does not make any herd like the forest wolf, but it had a special skill
Stealth.
He hides his presence with Stealth, and he ambushes the enemy without making any sound.
This is a really dangerous monster.
But unfortunately for them, my spotter level is higher, so it didn't work on me.

Sleep sheep is a sheep.
It looks like a normal sheep.
It is usually asleep but when the living being approaches it, it wakes up and screams really loudly.
The sound has the effect of forcing the one to hear sleep.
...and, it just force others to sleep then it gets back to sleep, so there no one has ever been attacked by it.
So some of the monsters take advantage of it and kill another monster.
But the sleeping attack didn't affect me so I killed it normally.
And gained special skill "Sleeping attack"

The second floor was a treasure box for the Abnormal state attacks.

The skill is getting more and more.
When I see this it makes me grin really stupidly.
But having a lot of attack option, there is always a bad side to everything.

If I become perplexed during an important situation, I must choose a regular or habitual skill.

While thinking of the happy problem like this, I entered the Log house.

Today and today again I randomly chose the food and eat.

I did some warm up and stretched.

——I should head out now.

Today and today again exploration

I go the different direction compared to yesterday

The monster didn't change.

Without worrying about abnormal state attacks, Killing insect type monsters are easy.

The thing is, it is too easy I'm starting to lose caution.

When I fight with the wolfs, I purposely don't attack and practice my dodging skill.

——Oh, that is.....

This is the first time I see 'That' in this floor.

Hmm, I wonder what's inside.

I opened the treasure chest everyone likes and found a blue gem inside.

This is my first time seeing it.

I activated my True seeing eyes.

Name: Point Gem (Blue)

Type: treasure

Effect: you get 500 points if used.

I see, there was something like this.

It is a good thing but I'm not in dire need of points.

So I just threw it in my Box

So I continued my exploration, the spotter skill spotted the monster in front.

I approached it and saw a new type of monster.

But even without activating true seeing eyes, I knew this thing.

And maybe there are lesser people who don't know it.

Why would it appear in second floor rather than the first floor?
You might ask a question like this, ‘this’ thing is that famous for being weak.
Transparent gelatin like body. Moving with a PuruPuru shakes. No eyes, nose or mouth, I can see the red rock inside its body.

———Yes, a Slime

When we say slime, you imagine a weak character.
The beginner monster you fight.
But I don’t know how it is in here.
I should check it with True seeing eyes.

I check the Slime’s description using true seeing eyes.

Slime
No matter which floor, it appears rarely.
It contains a lot of experience points but, it has a precautious nature, and has a

Detection type skill so it is really hard to approach it without it noticing.
Plus, It is a user of the rareest magic space magic, the one who have lived long enough can use metastasis magic.
And this is one of the reason there is little to no record of High level slime ever being killed.

——It means. The slime in this dungeon contains exp like a bank.
I see so that's why it is rare specie.
Then, I want to subjugate it here.
My will is already toward its magic skill.
It is the first magic skill plus the rare one space magic.
I should get it no matter what.

I used my stealth skill to its maximum capacity and approached it, And I dashed like a madman and near it.
Slime noticed me and tried to run but, I already had my sword up in the air ready to strike.
I jumped in front and slashed my sword.
Yes, I got it! —— But it didn't go that easily.
Slime moved its body and dodged the incoming sword.

——It dodged!?
I am surprised by this turn of event but this will not be the end.
I chase the running slime.
—— Cheat. Why I call this sticky adhesion body a cheat is that even with my high level and with varieties of my skills, which enhanced my bodily ability, I was able to catch up to it really barely.
This time, I swung my sword with full strength and cut the slime into the half.

Chapter 20

After my fateful encounter with slime, 1 week passed.

I already moved to the second safety area.

I moved a little deeper in the dungeon but, there was no change in monsters.

What I can think of is that the monsters appearing with slightly higher levels.

I've been defeating quite a lot every day so most of my skills are above lv 5.

While wishing for some sort of change, I left for my exploration.

——It appeared while I was resting during lunch time.

When I thought I heard a Gasa Gasa sound, something small came jumping out of the bush.

Body covered with a green color. A squirrel-like animal.

It had a ruby-like gem on its forehead.

——What is this adorable creature?....monster?

This small animal, tilting its head cutely and looking at me with its round and big eyes.

Having an adorable appearance but holding a Scary Gifted Skill.

Not just a rare specie but a Super rare specie.

The title of Ancient Beast just makes me go numb.

I don't get how ancient this guy can be.

I don't feel any dignity of an ancient being, rather just a cute animal.

...Should I subjugate it?

If possible, I don't want to attack it.

I like cute animals, like Cats and Hamsters.

Even with this kind of face. Don't judge people by their appearance.

And it was really easy to become friends with animals compared to humans.

So it is obvious I like them.

She's been looking at me for a while already.

What does she want to do?

—Maybe She is hungry?

While thinking so, I bought peanuts and a snack.

I placed it on my hand and gestured it to take.

She seems to be on guard and is not approaching me.

I threw one peanut.

Carbuncle, slowly and cautiously draws nearer to it, than it started sniffing, biting, and hitting.

It judged it to have no problem and It took a small bite.

Its's eyes opened wide and the ear stood erect.

When I thought it stopped, it started eating it really quickly.

—It seemed, it was hungry.

After finishing it, it looked at me with a longing gaze.

I tried placing the peanut in my hand again and gestured them to it.

It is still on guard.

She is not approaching me I guess....

The moment I thought that—

Teku... Teku..., it walked toward me little by little.

Slowly it reached out for the peanut on my hand.

It gripped it tightly and brought it to its mouth.

She ate it with a face full of happiness.

When I am watching this, it makes my heart warm.

I don't know when she finished eating but she is showing a gaze saying it is nowhere enough.

After that, it was a feeding time.

When I noticed, the bag was empty.

A lot of time seemed to have passed and the surrounding is getting darker.

When I hurriedly prepared to go back.

I looked at the Carbuncle and said "See you Squirrel. Be well", and began my journey back.

—Why. Why are you following me?

Yes, that Carbuncle is actually following me.

When I turn my head toward it, it looks at me with a curious face and tilts its head.

"Naa, Why are you following me?"

Carbuncle just tilts its head.

"Don't you have a parent?"

Carbuncle just tilts its head.

“Are you.....Alone?”

It stares at me.

Haaa... I sighed loudly.

“Wanna come with me?”

Carbuncle erected it’s ear and cried loudly.

I arrived at the safety area.

I was thinking if Carbuncle can enter but, it seems it can enter easily.

Maybe she is not a monster? Thinking so I looked at its status again, I saw ‘Traveler’s Pet’ as a new title.

———when did it became my Tamed monster...

And what the heck is tamed monster?

I was curious so I checked it with true seeing eyes.

—————

Tamed monster:

When a special condition is fulfilled the monster becomes tamed.

When it becomes a Tamed monster it gains benefit from the owner, so it becomes stronger than a monster from the same species.

Some conditions are, when the monster surrenders to the owner, or when the monster swear to allegiance.

The latter is hard but it gives stronger mental connection so the benefit to the monster gets bigger.

...I see, it was a monster.

But when did I get so much like?

I didn't fight so she didn't surrender to me.

Then won't that mean she swore allegiance to me?

—Because I fed her..?

Wasn't it supposed to be hard, it was way too easy, but when I saw her that hungry, I guess it must've some problem of his own.

I guess it's not that bad having a partner.

And she seems to be strong also.

And most of all my first partner.

I want to work hard together with her.

"Let's be good partner, right Squirrel"

When I said that, Squirrel made a weird expression.

Was there something she didn't like?

"What's the wrong Squirrel"

"Kyuuu!!"

"Uwa!! Oi, what are you doing suddenly...."

I don't understand but it got angry and jumped at me.

"What happened really Squirrel? Are you hungry again?"

"Kyu! Kyu!!"

It is crying and trying to say something to me.

"Oi, Squirrel?"

"Kyu! Kyu!! Kyu!!!"

"Haa?.. Is it that you don't like being called Squirrel?"

"Kyu!!"

She is nodding her head.

"Than what am, I supposed to call you? Do you even have any name?"

she shook her head.

And looked at me with expectant eyes.

...maybe.

“Should I give you a name?”

“Kyu!!”

She cried as if she is saying, finally, you understand!

“Really...I don’t really mind but....”

Unnn, While thinking of any name.

Name... Yeah, thats it...

“...then your name will be Ruby. How is it?”

I couldn't come up with anything better.

“Kyu?...Kyuu!Kyuu!!”

Ruby is running in a circle looking happy.

That is good. She seems to take a liking to it.

“Than...Ruby, Let's be good friends”

“Kyu!!”

Ruby raised one hand and cried happily.

Chapter 21

It’s been a week since I made my very first Partner.
I was using this week to level up Ruby as the main quest.
Level 5 on the second floor, makes me worried to death for her.
She became my Tamed beast so no matter what, I made sure she never got attacked by the monsters.
She needed to be strong urgently.

After making my movement central to leveling up Ruby, She became a lot stronger.

I leveled up by 1 and my skill level also leveled up.
We are getting better at cooperating.

Right now we are chilling in the safety area.
It's been 3 weeks since we started exploring the second floor.
should I go deeper or will I have another week or so for leveling up?
I am contemplating on which I should do.....
Even while I am thinking stuff like this, Ruby is eating peanuts innocently.

I sighed lightly, and thinking of getting a fresh air, I went out of the Log house.
I thought of having a walk outside so I started walking toward the forest, I hear the Pata Pata sound coming from behind.
Ruby cried loudly and Jumped at me.

His gaze while inside my arm, I can already start hearing "Don't leave me!!!!", if she ever talked.

I laughed a little and apologized lightly then placed her on my shoulder.
20 minutes into my relax walk.
Ruby was killing monsters who appeared with a Laser beam.

The laser beam was a lot stronger than I thought.
Depending on how much you deplete the mana, the strength changes, if one used enough mana, it can one hit kill the enemy.
But if you want to strengthen it, it takes longer time charging....
But there is no mistake it is a cheat ability.
This is a secret but I really wanted the ability.

While walking like this and instant killing the monster, I detected something in front.

In the spotter, it showed yellow dots.

This is the first time I see the color.

— — —I was already prepared but.... I was right.

I approached them using stealth, there was a classmate present.

3 male and one female.

Of course, I never talked to them, But I knew their name as a person from the same class.

One of the male's name is Tanaka Sofuto. A Skinny guy with glasses. He is what you call otaku, but even so his narcissistic personality and his strong guts make him popular. He is also a friend of Tamura Taichi [The guy who shouted when they met the god]

The second male's name is Yamada Soichirou. He wears glasses like Tanaka, but he is fat. He is quite tall so he looks huge overall. Tanaka and Tamura is an otaku friend.

The third one is a Satou Youya. He is an average guy like Azakura, but he associates himself with the Tamura otaku group. He is always keen to others reaction. He has no opinion of his own.

And the only girl in the group. This women's name is Mihama Rina. She is the leader of the Gyaruu group, she tanned her skin, with hair dyed with gold color.

— — —It has a weird combination of a party. 3 otaku and a Gyaruu. They seemed to be talking about something. I eavesdrop from the tree's shadow.

“—-We don't have enough potions!! Why don't you listen!! It is dangerous to proceed any further!!”

“Haa? It's you guys, who are at fault for being weak. Just continue the exploration, what's wrong with you.”

“Etto...Mihama-san. Tanaka kun is right so we should listen to him? It is already late so we should.....”

“You should just shut up! Useless freak”

“Ri, Rina-chan, isn’t that a bit harsh....”

“Don’t call me by my name!? Disgusting freaks”

“Oi, Shut the hell up! Stop complaining all the time!!”

“What! You guys were the one who said we can continue so we came here!?”

—What kind of situation is this....

It seems like Tanaka and Mihama are arguing and Yamada and Satou are trying to help stop the argument. And the one who got called useless was Satou and the one who got shouted for calling her name was Yamada.

—Fumu...Should I stop them? No, but....

Listening to them, they don't seem to be in trouble.

Hmm, what should I do....

Chapter 22

While I was thinking about what to do, I detected the monster approaching from afar.

It is coming at a high speed.
It seems like their shouting lured them in.
Without any choice, I went toward them.

“Oi, the monster is coming. Isn’t it a bad time to argue?”

4 of them looked at me and froze.
—haa, stop with that over reaction.....

They cried or froze as usual.
...Oi Satou. Stop crying aren’t you a man.

While they are making noises the enemy is approaching.
Argh, so annoying, I dashed in front of the four.

——Forest wolf was the one that jumped out.
I instantly killed one of them.
And the Ruby’s Laser beam burned two of them.
I kicked one that was in the back and I slash the wolf next to it.
I crush the wolf which was weakened due to my kick, and the battle finished.

The guys who were watching in the back had their mouth opened.
I approached them and talked to them.

“Yo, its been a while”

The first one to come back sense was Tanaka Nadebuto.

“Ah, Etto...Kurosaki...san”

“Kurosaki is fine. Do you have any injury?”

“A, aa...I’m fine. It really helped us”

“No problem”

“When did you guys come to this floor”

“..Around 1 week ago”

I see, so they came 2 weeks after my first floor conquer.

“You won’t be able to rest here. There is a safety area around here, wanna come?”

“Re, Really!? Please it would help us a lot”

“Ok, I will lead you to there”

“Thanks, I really appreciate it”

—- other than Tanaka no one can talk....

The other 3 didn’t say a single word.

Ma, it’s not like I care.

When we entered the log house, I asked them to sit randomly.

—now, it’s time for us to have a little chat....

“Now, I want to exchange our information but what should we start first. Do you have any questions?”

“...hmm... first, Kurosaki are you moving in solo?”

“No, 2 people....I mean 1 person and an animal. This guy here is my partner”

I grabbed the Ruby who was hiding behind my neck and placed her on the table.

Ruby seems to be on guard against the people she saw for the first time.

“Wha, ...what is this? Squirrel?”

“No, it is a monster named Carbuncle”

“Monster!? How can the monster enter here!?”

Tanaka is seeming to be really surprised.

The other 3 in the back seems to be the same.

“This guy is a monster but she is not dangerous. Since she is my Tamed monster”

“Tamed? How did you do that?”

I explained some details on tamed monsters.

“I see, the tamed monster it is... There was something like that.”

“And is there any more questions you want to ask?”

“...How long have you been living on this floor”

“I came to this floor around 3 weeks ago”

“Ha!?Is it true!?”

“Whats the point of lying”

“Iya, Maa, its way to quick...”

I just shrugged it off and didn’t answer that.

“...It fine. And for the another question...”

“Ne, Ne, Kurosaki! What is your level right now?”

Mihama suddenly asked as she cut Tanaka’s question.

“Oi, Mihama.....”

Tanaka looks really pissed.

“Netteba, just say it, common. Kurosa “Shut the fuck up”ki..... ”

I glared at her lightly and Mihama froze in her place.

“I’m talking to Tanaka right now. You who were quiet all this time shouldn’t start speaking your vile mouth.”

Mihama’s face turned blue and she shut up.

“So, sorry Kurosaki. Please forgive us.”

“No, It wasn’t your fault. .. so what was the question?”

“A, aa...Kurosaki, have you met any other person other than us?”

“...Aa. I met Azakura on the first floor.”

“Azakura, I see..... Did you guys act together or anything?”

—I knew he would ask....

“Azakura.....”

“What’s wrong Kurosaki? Did he....by a monster?”

“...No, it’s not. He didn’t get killed by a monster”

“Not monster?... what do you mean by that?”

“I killed....Azakura”

The room suddenly became quiet.

They are unable to digest what I just said and looked really confused.

“Eh? Ah, etto, sorry, can you say it again.”

“I said, I killed Azakura”

4 of them looked at me with wide open eyes.

There was a fear which floated to their pupils.

Yamada stood up from his chair, and tried to escape but fell.

Satou couldn’t even stand up and started crying.

Mihama screamed and lost all the energy.

“Why....Why did you kill Azakura”

Tanaka asked while trembling.

“Azakura tried to kill me that’s why”

“Azkarua did that? He tried to kill Kurosaki!?”

I told them on what happened between me and Azakura.

Other than Tanaka no one seemed to believe me, and Tanaka was the only one to believe me.

“You must’ve had a hard time”

“True that but. Can we stop talking about that?”

“Aah, yes. Then my other question was.....”

Tanaka’s questions were mostly on this floor. The monster I fought, how you to defeat it.

“”and that is it. Any more question?”

“Fumu...no, there is no question from me. How about you guys?”

Tanaka asked the 3.

None seems to have any question.

“This is it for our side”

“I see. Then, can I start asking you guys the question?”

“Of course”

“So I can see you guys as a four man party right?”

“Yup, there is no other”

“Can you tell me a little bit about the reason you guys formed the team”

“Fumu....The first one I met was Satou. It was around 5 days after we were transported to this dungeon”

“And after that I met Yamada and Mihama, it was around 1 week at that time. They seemed to already have formed a team so we combined with them”

“Why did you think of teaming up with them?”

“That’s, of course, the dungeon is dangerous that’s why. 2 is always better than 1.”

—We are not strong enough to fight solo.

He said it while smiling bitterly.

His face had the same expression on when Azakura called me ‘Special’, it made my heart ache.

“I see... Did you meet any other human besides me>”

“Aa, We met with 3 people. Hasegawa, Miyashita and Minase.”

All three of them were female.

Hasegawa Aiko, Miyashita Rina, Minase Yukino.

Chapter 23

Hasegawa was a class president. She had a braided hairstyle and was always serious. She is like women made for being class president.

Miyashita used to be with Hasegawa a lot. She is a little timid but I think she is an honest person.

Minase was.....I don't really understand her. She was always alone in school. She was a loner just like me. Her looks are good.....I mean beautiful. But her usual attitude is that of cold and she usually doesn't interact with others. "Hasegawa and Miyashita formed their own party. At that time, I was with Satou and were only 2 people"

"So I asked if they wanted to form a party together but....Miyashita didn't want to."

"I see...How about Minase?"

"I invited her to the party but turned it down with her usual attitude. She didn't seem to be in trouble with the fights, so she might come here by herself."

Minase is a true elite. Her in school uniform really fit her and she dyed her hair white so she looks a bit like Gyarū, but she always got a good grade. She is good at sports and had Sharp senses. She must be the 'special' person Azakura says. I didn't have any other questions to ask.

There were several rooms in the log house so 4 and I decided to sleep here. Other than Tanaka, all were scared so they fought for the room with the furthest distance from my own.

—Night, Unknowingly I woke up, I thought of having a fresh air so I went out. But, it was already reserved.

He heard my footstep and turned back.

"Yo, it's you Kurosaki."

"Aa, what happened Tanaka? You can't sleep?"

"Yeah....I just have this bad premonition"

“I see....”

I sat next to him.

“Naa, Kurosaki....”

“Whats wrong?”

“Can’t you come with us?”

“...sorry, for now, I would probably do it solo”

“I see... It would be great if a strong person like you join us but I guess there is no choice.”

—- He didn’t lie.

I felt he was really good guy

“...I’ve been thinking it’s kind of weird, why is Mihama in your party?”

“When we met, she was already in a party with Yamada. I couldn’t just abandon her. And Yamada wouldn’t want that.”

“And Yamada has a crush on her... So it makes it more difficult to abandon her.”

“Even so, you already know it.”

“..You are really sharp, Kurosaki”

Tanaka laughed bitterly.

—Mihama called Satou useless.

But the truth is Mihama is the real useless one.
When I checked them with my True seeing eyes.

—-This is really horrible.
Most likely Mihama never had a proper fight.
Her skill and Levels are way too low.
And the Gifted skills are really not the lucky ones.
If this goes on, this guys’ party will collapse.
Tanaka also understands this.
But, he can’t abandon his classmates.

— Tanaka’s situation, it looks like a situation I would’ve have had faced if I didn’t hold my determination that time, it really makes me sigh in pity.

Next day I said goodbye to the Tanaka’s party and left.
I was thinking of finding a new Safety Area.

It will make them feel comfortable when I'm not here.

“Be careful, alright.”

“Aah, you too, work hard”

“Ma, We would explore slowly”

“I see, then, see ya”

“Aa, next time”

I waved at Tanaka and started walking.

I found the next Safety area, 8 hours after my departure.

The forest is already getting dark.

I entered the log house and ended my exploration for today.

I will explore around here tomorrow.

Next day, I randomly explored the surrounding of the safety area.

There seems to be no big difference only slightly higher leveled monsters.

I will search for the next safety area after I leveled up Ruby.

—Two weeks passed by.

I found 2 other safety area from then.

It is about time for me to find the floor master's room.

I've been leveling up constantly and there is no problem.

—-and this is how our status came out to be.

These days Ruby's been able to defeat monster alone easily.

I once attempted her to fight alone.

She placed a barrier toward the incoming monster then burned to death with laser beam. Instant kill.

When I was thinking.... I guess this is how it supposed to be, she looked at me with her round and big eyes, waiting for a praise. She is really adorable.

There was no problem with us, but I started being curious about Tanaka's party.

It's been 2 weeks ever since the farewell, are they safe, I'm getting kind of worried a little.

—I guess, I can visit them for a little.

Thinking so I stood up, and used the teleportation function of the safety area, to teleport to another safety area, for the first time in the dungeon.

I entered the log house and proceeded towards the living room.
I placed my hand on the Crystal on the table.

That moment, the transparent board similar to status came up.
It shows the map of the safety area I've once been.

I tap on the second safety area and pushed Yes for the “Would you like to teleport here?” question.

After the slight floating feeling, I’ve landed on the floor.
The log house has no distinct difference with other houses but, some ornaments are a bit different.

I opened my map and checked my location.
This is definitely the second safety area.
But, in this log house, there was no indication that anyone was living.
It seems Tanaka’s party already left.

I teleported to the third foothold.
When I checked the log house, there was some indication that someone used he chairs and tables.
Most likely they are exploring right now.
I might as well as wait since its getting dark now.

——Something wrong.
It’s been three hours since, but no one is coming.
The forest is already really dark.
It is dangerous to walk outside around this time.
I have to go check outside.

I placed Ruby on my shoulder and searched the surrounding.
There is no one. I should go in deeper.
Spotter detected someone.
4 yellow dots, and ——
——9 red dots.....

Chapter 24

I dashed with my quickest speed.

I jumped out and what I saw was.....

——A Tanaka with eyes looking dead, with a bitten mark all over the body.

“——Tanaka!!”

I dashed without slowing down into the herd of wolfs and slashed and killed the wolfs.

Extermination didn't take long.

I checked to see if there were any remnants and approached Tanaka.

“Oi, Tanaka! Oi!!”

But Tanaka gives no response.

No, I already know.

My Spotter skill already ceased to show Tanaka's presence.

Tanaka had already died.

Soon Tanaka's body lit with light and disappears into the air.

I was watching it stupidly.

Silence swallowed the place.

No one could open their mouth.

After some time, I regained my calmness.

I approach the 3 who are frozen.

3 of them are trembling and the tears are forming in their eyes.

“For now, we should head back to the safety zone”

Without waiting for their reply I brought them back.

“...So what happened?”

I asked them the situation but no one opened their mouth.

I sighed.

“Haa....Yamada, what really happened?”

Yamada who were called out panicked for a while, but he started speaking.

“Etto....the truth were that— ——”

The summary of what Yamada said was this.

Today during the exploration, Tanaka’s patience reached its limit towards the Mihama’s selfishness, and it broke into an argument.

Yamada defended Mihama and Satou just watched it happen.

Tanaka started saying he is going to leave the party.

Yamada and Satou tried to stop him, but Tanaka didn’t listen and went off on his own.

After that, they fought for hours, but it never went the way it used to, and the Healing potion was all depleted so they decided to go back to Log House.

But, at that moment the herd of the forest wolf ambushed them.

No one was able to notice them coming since they usually used Tanaka’s spotter skill.

No healing potion and have only one vanguard.

The situation where they couldn’t fight.

As the battle prolonged they started getting injuries.

Fortunately at that moment, the Tanaka who was supposed to out alone come back.

Thanks to Tanaka’s leadership they were somehow able to defeat the wolfs.

Feeling relief that their life was saved, and Yamada and Satou expressed their gratitude to Tanaka.

But was one who stupidly complained.

—-Why didn’t you come help us quicker. We got injured. Take out your Healing Potion.

The Dumbass (Mihama) who didn’t participate in the fight, who relied on Yamada and Satou to fight, said this.

Tanaka who was really pissed at her words, but he gave the healing potion reluctantly since they all were injured.

But even after that Mihama keeps on complaining.

“You guys are really useless!” when she said that, Tanaka couldn’t keep it anymore.

Tanaka’s angry voice resounded throughout the forest.

Mihama felt shocked at Tanaka’s anger, but didn’t lose there and started stating a fucking dumb theory.

According to her, I have more value than you otakus. So, protecting me is only natural.

According to her, Male is obliged to protect women. So protecting her is necessary.

According to her, I am following you guys because she feels pity towards them. So Protecting her is their duty.

....Mihama said all this stuff without any shred of shame, which made not only Tanaka but Yamada and Satou stupified.

That moment, another angry shout were resounded throughout the forest.

The argument started escalating and the loud shouts lured in 'those guys'

The enraged Tanaka was unable to notice it.

When someone noticed.

It was already too late.

Wolfs starts jumping out of the shades.

Tanaka panicking tried to fight back.

Yamada and Satou, of course, Mihama to were too scared to fight back.

Tanaka alone desperately fought.

A little more and he could've turn the table, his legs were bitten by the wolf.

If would have been no problem if he healed in that instant.

But he had no space for that during a fight.

Tanaka shouted toward the 3 in the back.

To throw the healing potion. One only is fine.

Yamada and Satou didn't have any.

Since they already exhausted them during the past battle.

Mihama had one. The one which was given to her by Tanaka.

If she threw it to Tanaka, he would've healed. But.....

.....But, Mihama abandoned Tanaka.

She didn't want to let go of the last potion.

Or she was too scared to move.

No matter what, at that moment, Tanaka's destiny have been sealed.

After hearing that much, I looked at Mihama.

“Na, Mihama”

Mihama trembled and looked down.

“Why... why the fuck did you abandon him to die”

Mihama is keeping her silence while looking down.

“Answer, Mihama.... FUCKING ANSWER!!”

I shouted it to her and Mihama had tears in her eyes and looked up.
She glared at me and shouted.

“What! What’s your problem!? It’s none of your business!!”

“I’m not wrong!! He, it’s his fault for fighting by himself and.....”

That moment, I lifted Mihama by grabbing onto her collar.

“Oi, This Toxic Women...What the fuck did you just say?”

“Hi....A, e, a...”

Mihama is trembling with a pale face.

“Say that again motherf*cker and....I will bring you to the Tanaka’s place”

Saying so, I activated my special skill “Coercivity aura”

I had a confidence that I could activate this.

The room was engulfed by my killing intent.

Mihama had her eyes white and started foaming bubbles out of her mouth.

Yamada and Satou fainted.

When I stay here I feel like killing them.

I decided to go back.

Chapter 25

Next day I resumed my exploration near the Safety area.

But, nothing new were found.

Thinking that it was a waste of time going out these days so, I decided to practice my skill in the safety zone.

3 days later, I remembered the items which Tanaka dropped after he died, and it was left in the forest.

Most likely Yamada's group might have already retrieved it or maybe it disappeared but I chose to look at it with my own eyes.

We were not close enough to call ourselves "Friends" but we got along pretty well.

So at least, I should inherit his items and use it for a good use.

I don't want to meet with the Yamada's group.

A bit before the evening I teleported to 4th foothold and head there by walking.

The forest is already getting dark.

I arrived at the place Tanaka died.

Most of the tools and weapons are scattered.

It seems it wasn't retrieved by the others.

I prayed for Tanaka in my heart and started picking up his items.

The moment I finished collecting the item, my spotter skill detected a presence.

Yellow dot, a human.

But something is wrong.

It seems as if they are playing tag, one of the dot is chasing the other.

They are not walking, rather running.

I have a bad feeling about this.

I dashed toward them as if I was pushed in my back by my feeling.

In the dark forest, I can hear 2 people's footstep.

The footstep in the back is getting closer to the other, and the footstep stopped.

What I heard next was a woman's scream and a male voice which seemed to be filled with lust.

I approached them stealthily without making any sound.

When I peeked at them from the shadow of the tree, I saw a male grabbing the woman's hand and was on top of her.

In there was—— ——— A Yamada who was about to hit it off with Mihama.

This mother fucker.....

What is Yamada doing, no, what is the thing he is about to do, I understood instantly by looking.

I approached them with a constant speed and kicked Yamada's stomach from the side.

It made a DOGA! Sound and Yamada flew 5 meters away.

“I will ask you this, what were you doing?”

“Ku, Kurosaki....”

Yamada glared at me while holding his stomach with his hands.

“Ku, Kurosaki! Help!!”

Mihama clung to my leg from behind.

It’s annoying so I kicked her away.

“Bo, Bokuwa...nothing....I didn’t nothing...”

“No, shut the fuck up. Don’t think you can lie to me while showing off your carrot”

[TInote: Mc actually said that disgusting weapon XD]

Feeling ashamed of my word, so his face turned red and stood up.

“It, it’s none of your business Kurosaki!? I, I always protected that woman!”

“So, a little...should...”

“What do you mean by little!? You tried to force on my!!”

“Bu, But....”

Yamada's face from red turned blue.

"You are so disgusting every time! Looking at my body like an idiot, your breath also smells, don't come near me you freak!!"

"But, why...."

"It was always like this! I always hated being in the same party with a disgusting pig like you!!"

"Bu, But, you were happy for me at first! Like how I was really reliable and I was kind....."

"Of course, I say that so my life here will be easy, so it was all a Lie!? You don't even know that!!"

Yamada is becoming more ashen.

The confusion soon turned into anger.

"Wha....what....What kind of shit are you saying!!"

"Wh, why ...why are you getting angry, so annoying"

Mihama was surprised and taken back with Yamada's change in behaviour.

"I won't forgive...I will never forgive you!!"

Breathing abnormally he approaches Mihama, and took out the axe from the box, then started brandishing it around.

I couldn't just watch it happen and I stood in front of Mihama.

I stopped the falling axe with my sword and sent it flying.

“Ku, Kurosaki! Why do you keep on interfering with me!?”

“It won't be good if I let you become murder right in front me right. Calm down.”

“Calm down?...What do you understand, what can you possibly understand!”

Yamada started brandishing the axe frantically.

“It's all that women's fault! Because of that woman! Me and Tanaka!!”

Saying so he attacked with his axe.

—This guy, he is serious about this.

I instantly made my resolve.

I dodge the incoming attack and instantly appeared next to him, and cut off Yamada's hand.

“Gyaaaaaa!! It hurtssssssssssss!!”

While holding his hand Yamada crouched on the floor

“Why, why do have to I suffer like this...”

“Why you ask... You had a friend who fought with you but, you were tricked by this toxic woman, it’s yourself to blame.”

“No way, I...Uuuu...Uuu..”

With his mucus and tears, his face is distorted, he is screaming with pain.

“Maa, If there is such thing as next life, be careful toward women.....before that, go apologise to Tanaka. Apologize for not being able to fight together.” I closed in toward Yamada who wasn’t able to say anything back and decapitated his head.

Chapter 26

I collected the items which were scattered from Yamada's box.
I prayed for the sad man who lost his friend due to the Toxic women.

After some time, I turn around.
Mihama was looking at me with a stunned face.
When our eyes met, she trembled.

"How do you feel now after you tricked the man and turned him into a madman? Shitty women."

"No, no...I, I didn't, do any....."

"It's all your fault that this party collapsed if it weren't for you than Yamada wouldn't have turned insane nor Tanaka having to fight alone."

"N, No! I have to done nothing!! Tanaka got killed by the wolf and that Disgusting pig was killed by you!?"

"Aa, it's true. I killed Yamada. But who were the one that that created this scenario? "

"Wasn't all this your fault, you were the one that manipulated others and acted all selfish and self-centered?"

"No No No!! I've done nothing wrong!!"

She is shaking her head like a kid who is having a tantrum.

"Than who is in the wrong? Except for the Shitty bitch who tricked and manipulated Yamada, who else can be faulted for his death?"

"Tha, that is....Tanaka did...Yes, it's all Tanaka's fault!!"

——What the fuck is this bitch saying now?

"You know right!! If he were a bit stronger than he wouldn't have died, and if he was alive then Yamada wouldn't act so stupidly!!"

Mihama is smiling as if what she said were all right and her righteousness saved herself.

—aa, I see. I finally knew.

This woman, the women in front of me is—

—The real....harm.

“You should just die.”

Without any hesitation, I twisted Mihama’s head.

[TInote: this is what you all been waiting for, bitch got killed hahahahahahah....I’m not a psychopath ok.....I’m sad that women died....nah, that’s a lie. Man, it was stressful translating all the shit that women said, it was annoying to the point I felt like killing her myself Xd....Don’t take my joke seriously alright, I am no criminal.]

— Now what should I do.....

After I had collected all the Mihama’s items, I was thinking of my future. And I didn’t pray for the bitch’s peace.

—-First, I chase it down.

For now, I decided to chase the dot which was detected before.

Yes, in that place including me there were four dots shown.

I pursue the yellow dot.

My speed is, of course, faster.

Soon, I caught the glimpse of the back which were lightened by the moon’s light I approached it and kicked the guy who was trying to run.

The guy groaned in pain and looked at me.

“Yoo... What are you doing here?.... Satou”

Satou glared at me with apparent hatred.

“Kurosaki...why did you kick me all of the sudden?”

“Oi Oi, this isn’t something a guy who suddenly ran away says.... And what happened to the way you usually spoke? Did you get tired of acting now?”

Satou stood up looking frustrated.

“From when were you aware of it.”

“I was never aware of it. Since you never spoke in front of me.”

Yes, I wasn't aware of it.

What was this guy's aim was?

But, I knew this guy was hiding in that place and what he was trying to do.

Because this guy, he was trying to utilize his magic toward the Mihama, who was screaming and Yamada who was on top of Mihama.

And it wasn't for helping her either.

That magic was aimed at Yamada.

"Your miscalculation was my appearance in that place. And my spotter skill was higher than what you thought it would be."

"...You are right. I didn't think even my gifted skill would be seen through."

Satou's gifted skill is a "scammer."

The effect of it is, supplement the action of deceiving other.

It supplements not only words and status.

It is also useful for concealing one's presence.

So Satou's stealth skill can show an effect higher than it's level.

But I have True Seeing Eyes.

Me who felt a discomfort in the place where Satou was hiding, I instantly activated my True Seeing eyes and grasped the information that Satou was hiding.

And information regarding him aiming the magic at Yamada.

"Why did you try to kill them?"

"Why? It's obvious"

—those two were already of no use for me.

Saying so he floated out a smile.

"No use...?"

"Un, that's all. Those two will just be a hindrance to me if they were to be alive. Especially Mihama-san."

"Hou, you were thinking things like that. It's really unexpected."

"Really. I've been thinking about these things from the beginning, though."

"...You also formed the party with Tanaka so that you can use him? "

“You are right; Tanaka-kun is a kind person. He even helped a shy guy like me when I asked him for help.”

“You, who had no confidence in surviving alone, thought of gaining Tanaka’s power which you met by chance.”

“..I’m surprised. You are smart.”

“You won’t deny it.”

“Since it is all the truth, there is no point in denying.”

“...were you the one that incited Yamada to do that?”

“...I never thought you would notice it.”

“Yamada is more cowardly than you think he is. Not only he is a coward in battle but also in a thing as love.”

“It’s true Mihama tried to deceive Yamada. But just because of that Yamada won’t go insane like that. Someone must have fired him up, and instigate him.”

“And today’s event, you deceived them using your gifted skill and instigated them right?”

“...True that it was an easy job. Just saying things like Mihama-san has a crush on you, like you must protect her, that pig got serious about it.”

“But there was no need for you to kill them. If it was you, there must have been other ways to use them?”

“Didn’t I say it before? They were a hindrance. It would be good to have some relationship with them if Tanaka was still alive.”

“But Tanaka-kun died. So there was no future for this party. It’s true that I instigated Yamada to attack Mihama, but even that depends on time.”

“If they were to cause some problem when I’m not present then won’t it be better that they do it in front of me. And when they have so much opening, then I will kill them both. I gain their power and let another classmate who will come in here pick me up.”

“..I see. I understand why you did all this but why are you telling it to me right now?”

“Lie won’t go through you, right? Then, sooner or later you will know about it.
And— —-”

—Won’t it be okay if I just kill you here.

Chapter 27

The instant Satou said that— —-

Spotter detected a presence of more than 30.

—What is happening?

I was stunned by the unexpected situation.

Satou was grinning while looking at me.

“Hahaha, what’s wrong, Kurosaki-kun?”

“What the f*ck did you do?”

“Nothin? I just used a particular item?”

“Item? When did you....”

“When you kicked me. Of course, I concealed the use, though.”

—shit I didn’t notice it. An item that lures in monsters.

I clicked my tongue and glared at Satou.

“Otto scary scary. Don’t glare at me like that. But wait? Did your eyes look a little better? Was it because of the Mihama-san’s gifted skill?”

Things like that don’t matter.

For now, I should deal with the monster appearing from the surrounding.

“Oi, what are you going to do about the monster yourself? If this goes on...”

“Aa, I am fine you know? I will use this.”

Satou took out a white feather out of his box.

“What’s that? Is it also some item?”

“You didn’t know. Maa, it seems like a rare item.”

“Stop wasting time and say it. What is that?”

“You really are impatient. This allows a teleportation to the nearest safety zone you’ve once been too.”

— —-I see. This guy is planning to escape.

“You finally understand. ...I know you are strong but against this large herd of monster, you will be helpless.”

Satou says so while looking down and as if he knows shit.

“Ma, do your best. I will use your items for a proper use, so you don’t have to worry about it.”

Satou said so and held the feather up.

The feather emitted light, and it engulfed Satou, then Satou disappeared. Monsters are already really close.

—Fumu....How should I say it, he really is a Dumbass.

Sigh escaped out of my mouth.

I don’t know how much he knows about my strength, if its only a herd of 30, Me and Ruby can easily deal with it.

I might get injured, but I have a stock full of Healing potions I never use.

—Ma, I should get over with it as quick as possible.

A man inside a wooden log house muttered.

His face contains a smile which failed to be hidden.

“Jeez, they really were a hindrance to my plan, it’s so annoying.”

“Ma, Even for Kurosaki-kun that amount of monster is too much, he must be dead by “Who died?” what!? ”

“Yo, you are!?”

“Satou, you’ve really done it.”

“Wh, why...here..”

“Even if you ask me why. I just came back normally.”

“What about those monsters!? How did you, from that many monsters!?”

“I didn’t use any special items or escape. I just killed all of them.”

“How....impossible...”

“Really regrettable. I’m stronger than how you thought I was. And I have this guy with me too.”

I patted Ruby, who was on top of my shoulder.
I can only feel warmth from looking at such an adorable creature.

“What can a weakling like that do!? Stop fucking with me!!”

Next moment, Ruby blasted laser beam to Satou’s left arm.

“Eh?...A, A, Aaaaaaaa It hurtttttssssssssss!!”

He fell on the floor and held his arm.

When I look at Ruby, her arm is on her waist as if saying don’t make fun of me.
She seemed to have gotten angry at being called weakling.

—Ma, She is an ancient beast even though she looks like this. She must have some pride.

I approached Satou, who was rolling on the floor screaming.

“Is there anything left to say?”

“No, I don’t want to. Help, Please help meeeee”

Of course, I ignored him.

I took out the sword from my box and raised it up in the air.

“He, heeeee!!”

He tries to run away.

I stepped on top of his back and held him there.

“Now then, Sayonara Motherf*cker.”

[Tl note: I thought it would cool for the mc to say sayonara mother fucker since it sounds badass, in the novel he didn’t say that, hough]

Saying so I slashed the struggling Satou.

Chapter 28

—It been five days since my fourth murder.
I’ve found the floor master of the second floor.

I don’t have any regrets over killing the 3.
Even so, killing leaves you with a bad after taste.
I should leave this floor as soon as possible.

From that day onward I repeated my forceful stride and an exploration. Finally,
I found the place.
Similar to Safety zone, the surrounding does not have a tree and a plain is spread in a circular formation.
And right in the middle of it, contains a single black giant wolf.
It’s looking down, and he is crouching as if he is sleeping.
Even when it’s crouching, it’s head is located a bit taller than mines.
If that thing ever stood up, then it will easily surpass 3 meters.

I prepared myself and calmed my heart.
I feel the death premonition pass by my head; it’s the same feeling I got from Goblin Lord.
I shook my head as if trying to overcome such, and slap my face to calm myself.
—I’m ready for the last battle on this floor
I took a big step and dashed.

When I entered the so-called Giant wolf’s territory, it perked its ear and looked up.
It stood up slowly and calmly, then shook his body.
When I looked at it again, it didn’t look sleepy rather a predator which hunts monsters.

Title
Second floor floor master
Giant Emperor Wolf

Giant wolf swallowed a large amount of air and roared.
That instant nine wolf jumped out of the forest.
The wolves surrounded me.
I took out the sword from my box and pointed it toward the Giant wolf.
Giant wolf roared as if to intimidate me.
And that became the signal for the start of the battle.

I judged that if I stopped, it would be over, so I dashed toward the right with all my might.
I beheaded the wolf which had its mouth opened wide.
Ruby's laser burned the one who was in the back.
Without stopping, I ran outside of their blockade.
I judged that it would be bad if I keep on being attacked by multiple opponents.

3 of the wolves came next.
Two from left and right and one came from the front.
I purposely didn't move, and waited for the perfect moment then jumped high in the air,
Manipulating Wind magic, I supplement my movement.
Wolves are suddenly losing their target, they all hit each other and fell.
And Ruby in the air released it were laser beam and burned all three of them.

The instant my foot landed on the ground, Alarm skill echoed in my head.
Without even looking around, I jumped front with my full strength

If my reaction were an even a bit slower, I would've been crushed by the Giant wolf's nail.

It seems like this floor master is unlike Goblin Lord who waits for his subordinates to lose, the giant wolf is more the type to use his subordinate to create an opening and attack.

But there are only four subordinate wolves left. There is little means to take.

Four survivors are trying to surround me.

I knew they would do this.

I grabbed Ruby and threw it toward one of the wolves.

Flying small animal? Even while Feeling puzzled, it is still on its guard.

Ruby landed with a Poto sound, and she looked around kyorokyoroly

Wolves must have felt after looking at Ruby act like so, their caution must have decreased and judged that they must be able to kill her from this distance, so one of the wolves opened its mouth and jumped at Ruby.

But the wolf was obstructed by the barrier in the air created by mana and failed to draw near the Ruby.

Ruby easily aimed the laser at the falling wolf.

I approached the stupid one who were distracted by the battle; I beheaded his head from the back.

While thinking about how to deal with them, the Giant wolf ignored me and rushed toward the Ruby's side.

—That fucker, it dares to target Ruby!!

I tried to rush quickly, but 2 of the wolf blocked the path.

I obstructed one with the dark magic and killed another one by slashing its neck. I also killed other one by beheading.

But by the time I finished dealing with the two, Giant wolf was already really close to Ruby.

Giant wolf raised its arm and tried to pounce Ruby with its sharp nail.

I glared at Giant Wolf from the back and sent him my strongest killing intent.

Plus I also used the Roar filled with bloodthirst.

The Giant Wolf, feeling pressured by the strong bloodthirst and loud roar from its behind, it missed its target.

Immediately Ruby unleashed its laser beam.

The giant wolf who received the laser beam in such close distance unwillingly fell back.

It was already too late when he noticed the presence coming from the back.

I jumped high in the air and pierced my sword to the Giant wolf's neck. Giant wolf tried to shake me off by shaking its head but with my high level of mastery in Body Maneuver skill, I was able to rebalance myself and behead its head.
